

Community Calendar

Legion to serve Hunters Breakfast

Heppner American Legion Post No. 87 and Auxiliary will serve the annual Hunter's Breakfast all night October 3.

Pastoral associate to speak Sept. 29

On September 29 Anne Dunn will be the guest speaker at the annual Christian Women's Salad Supper. Her talk will be "Christian Unity, not Uniformity," and a slide presentation about a 1985 trip she made to Israel.

Originally from South Bend, Indiana Anne Dunn graduated from Regis College in Boston. She worked as a children's librarian until the raising of her children became a full time responsibility, a spokesperson said. After her children were in school she decided it was time to get serious and "start returning all that had been given to me." She entered Mt. Angel Seminary and earned a Master's Degree in scripture and theology. Presently she is a pastoral associate at the Church of St. Anne in Portland.

Hot cakes, ham, eggs, and beverage will be served from 4 p.m. to 6 a.m. Saturday at the Ron McDonald Chevrolet Showroom. Price will be the same as last year.

Ms. Dunn has been one of the speakers for the DeSales Adult Education program produced by the Baker Diocese of the Catholic Church.

Methodists continue study classes

Sunday evening Sept. 21 the first class conducted by Rev. Don Boyce, pastor of Heppner United Methodist Church, explored the meaning of membership in that denomination; a second class continuing the search for understanding of membership in the church and the local congregation will be held at 7 p.m. on Sunday evening, Sept. 28.

This Wednesday at noon a brown-bag Bible-study group will meet with the Rev. Boyce. The same evening at 8 p.m. Chairman Doug Drake has set a Pastor-Parish Relationship committee meeting.

Next Sunday, Sept. 28, following morning worship, an Administrative Council meeting, which the congregation is urged to attend, will see the 1987 budget presented for adoption and will consider plans concerning changes which may be made in church planning.

Episcopal Bible study begins

Bible study will be held this evening September 24 at 7:30 in the All Saints' Episcopal parish hall. All are invited to attend.

A special confirmation class for those desiring to know more about the formation of the Christian Church will begin in October, the Rev. George Izzett has announced.

De Sales program starts

This week starts the third year of the DeSales adult education classes at St. Patrick's and St. William's Catholic Churches in Heppner and Ione.

The DeSales program studies selected aspects of the scriptures and Catholic doctrine. Each series is composed of eight 90-minute sessions which include video presentations, relocation and discussion periods, said a study spokesperson.

AAUW plans international dinner

The American Association of University Women is hosting its annual international dinner to encourage new members. The dinner open to any woman interested in A.A.U.W., will be at Betty Rietmann's home near Ione, September 30 at 6:30 p.m.

Craft classes offered in Heppner

Several arts and crafts classes will be offered at Heppner Elementary School Tuesday and Thursday evenings beginning September 30. The classes are sponsored by Blue Mt. Community College and will be taught by Mycal Osmin.

The classes include: Doll Making, constructing three different dolls: Amish, Country Pinafore, and a jointed bear and friends. Each workshop will last two nights. Registration fee is $6.50. Candlewicking will begin October 21; registration fee is $5.

Covered Photo Albums will be taught three nights beginning October 23. Registration fee is $7.50.

Beginning Cross Stich is a two session class beginning November 4 at a cost of $5.

Advanced Beginning Cross Stich

Heppner Police Report

The Heppner Police Dept. reports handling the following business during the past week:

September 15: 8:10 a.m. - report of Burglary; 8:14 p.m. - report of Theft; 12:19 - request officer for Security Check.

September 16: 12:19 - report of Burglary; 1:15 p.m. - report of Theft; 1:33 p.m. - report of Theft.

September 17: 11:00 - juvenile taken into custody; 7 p.m. - Vehicle Removed; 7:15 - suspect arrested for Violation of Restraining Order, also Assault IV.

September 18: 1:55 - report of Menacing; 7:43 - report of Strange Circumstances; 7:52 report of Strange Circumstances; 8:18 - report of Theft; 9:54 - assist Morrow County Sheriff Dept.

September 19: 4 p.m. - assist Morrow County Sheriff's Officer; 10:56 - citation issued for Violation of Basic Rule (55 mph in 35 mph zone); 11:25 - citation issued for No Operator License.

September 20: 12:21 - request officer for Security Check.

Congregation tells pastor farewell

The congregation of the Ione United Church of Christ was joined by area friends in saying goodbye to the Rev. Cathy Barker on Sunday, Sept. 21.

Barker's final sermon in Ione was titled "Cathy's Epistle to the Saints." She was assisted by Moderator Sharon Rietmann; organist Helen Martin and musician

Marilyn Rietmann. Aitar flowers were by Helen Martin.

After church a potluck dinner and a public reception drew many. The Rev. Barker was given a Pendleton blanket and other farewell gifts. She and the choir provided music.

Rev. Barker and her dog Mercy, left for her next assignment at Cadillac, Michigan, on Tuesday, Sept. 23.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant, 676-9493

-Sam and Pauline Miller were in Heppner last week. Miller is a former forest ranger for the Heppner District of the Umatilla National Forest. Mrs. Miller taught in the grade school and was organist at the Methodist Church. She is also an accomplished singer.

-Mrs. Hilda Merkel from McLoughlin, South Dakota, is here visiting her sister, Ida Farra.

-Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer of Heppner were called to Salem by the death of his aunt, Josie Frederickson. They went on to Rainier to visit Mrs. Palmer's sister, Mrs. Harold Sparks.

-Mrs. Anna Schwarzin drove to Lonerock on Sunday—a first time visit for her. A lovely drive for a Sunday.

-Ava and Floyd Bercaw of Dallas are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris. She is a sister of Mr. Harris. Bob is reported as much better and able to pursue his usual activities.

Greenhands take 1st place

The Heppner FFA Greenhand livestock judging team took first place at the Pendleton Junior Livestock Show on Saturday, Sept. 20.

The Greenhand team consisted of Mark Brosnan, Cory Rill, Jason Maben, Dan Lindsay and Dean Munkers.

The advanced team from Heppner placed 6th, Mike Van Schoiack, Nancy Bailey, Nance Wright, Jodee Ashbeck, and Mary Osmin competed on the advanced team.

Mark Brosnan was the eighth high individual overall and high individual among the beginning livestock judges.

Eight teams competed in the contest. McLoughlin of Milton-Freewater placed first in the advanced division.

Former Heppner resident returns

Bouapeth (Thongdy) Panyanouvong and her daughters Annie and Amy visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Phou Thongdy and her brothers and sister over the weekend of September 20 and 21.

Bouapeth attended Heppner High School about five years ago and was employed by the Pioneer Memorial Hospital before she moved to Walla Walla where she worked and was married. She and her husband have lived in Wisconsin for the last three years. Annie was born in Sheboygan in March, 1985 and Amy was born in Milwaukee six weeks ago.

The Panyanouvong family of four has returned West to make their home in Walla Walla, much to the joy of the parents, grandparents and three younger members of the Thongdy family and their friends in Heppner.

Engagements

Deutz — Daly

The parents of Maggie Deutz and Tim Daly, all of Pendleton, announce the engagement of their children.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Ron and Mary Deutz of Pendleton. She graduated from Pendleton High School and the University of Oregon.

Tim Daly is the son of Charles and Yvonne Daly of Heppner. He graduated from Heppner High School and attends Eastern Oregon State College.

The couple will be married October 18 at St. Mary's Church in Pendleton.

Child Abuse Awareness program slated

A child abuse awareness program will be presented October 1 at Heppner Elementary School. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room and last about an hour. Refreshments will be served. For more information, call 989-8178.

Heppner business has new operators

Charlie and Lisa Wisdom are new operators of Kate's Pizza and Pastry. They've leased it from Jeff and Kathie Maben.

They have changed the name to Charlie's Pizza and Video World.

The Wisdoms are enthusiastic about the new business and will be open at 8 a.m. seven days a week. They will have a new menu and intend to emphasize the pizza more. They will still bake doughnuts each morning, and will continue to have sandwiches and the salad bar.

This is a rewrite of an article which ran September 10 in which there were some errors.

The Gazette-Times regrets the errors

Charlie and Lisa Wisdom

Orders To Go - No Extra Charge
Phone 676-5210

NEW HOURS: Mon-Thurs., till 10 p.m.—Fri-Sat., till 11 p.m.—Sun., till 9 p.m.
Bakery open 7 days a week, 8 a.m.

This Friday, to Celebrate the Mustangs Home Game, Receive One FREE Pitcher of Pop with any Large Pizza!

4th Annual
Fall Bulb Sale
Friday and Saturday
October 10 and 11
10 a.m. to 4 p.m. EACH DAY
I.O.O.F. HALL
Lexington
Featuring Over 1,000 Different Bulbs
Pie & Coffee — $1⁰⁰
Sponsored by Lexington Garden Bugs

Signs For Sale
ABSOLUTELY NO HUNTING
Now At
HUNTING BY PERMISSION ONLY
The Heppner GAZETTE-TIMES

ALL BOYS & GIRLS
Ages 6 - 18 years
Junior Bowling Registration
Sat. & Sun., Sept. 27-28
10 a.m. - 2 p.m.
LEAGUE STARTS OCT. 3 AT 3:45 PM
JUNIORS grab your parents or any adult and join our ADULT/JUNIOR LEAGUE. 4 to a team; 2 Juniors - 2 Adults. Find out who's the best in your family.
STARTS SUNDAY, OCT. 5 at 2:00 p.m. Meeting at 1:00 p.m.

Heppner BOWL
676-9208