Young J.V. Filly team puts forth talent

Christy Stroeber (20) returns a volley against the Stanfield Tigers.

The J.V. volleyball team at Heppner High School is very young, but puts forth a lot of desire and talent. This year's team is all new as last year's squad are now the varsity players for this season. The emphasis of the J.V. program is that all the players see playing time in every match. Winning is to come second. The J.V. program helps to prepare the volleyball players for varsity action.

The J.V. players have had a good season thus far, winning matches against Ione, Pilot Rock and Umatilla, in which all the girls took part, and taking Riverside, Weston McEwen, and Stanfield to three games in each match.

The Junior Varsity team consists of senior Sheri Piper, juniors J.J. Osmin, Kim Bond. The sophomores rule the roost with Nance Wright, Michelle Beck, Tami Lindsay, Jill Conklin, Christy Stroeber, and Michelle Wallis. Jennifer Currin started out on "C" team being a freshman and now only plays with the J.V. team. Jennifer Martin another freshman has seen limited J.V. action.

The girls play Pilot Rock Oct. 9 at an earlier time than usual - 3 p.m. Heppner had a win at Pilot Rock and hopes to continue its winning ways. J.V. players wanting to play in the varsity match are only able to play one J.V. game of a match. We hope to use all 10 players against Pilot Rock.

Heppner Filly C-Team learns basics

Heppner High C-Team volleyball players have had a season of learning the basic fundamentals of volleyball and self confidence. The young Filley team is still looking for their first win after having lost a heart-breaker to Umatilla last Thursday 12-15, 15-11, 17-15.

This team has had a number of injuries from day one, although nothing serious. Sometimes it is a surprise to their coach who is actually able to play each match.

Those playing for the C-Team are freshmen Jenny Martin, Kelly McLaughlin, Mary Osmin, Lana Schmidt, Mary Connor, Joanna Welch, and Angela Lewiston; sophomore Susan Plocharsky, and juniors Marcie Stookey and J.J. Osmin. Osmin sees J.V. action and Jenny Martin has made some J.V.

C-Team will not have another home match unless Ione brings three teams Oct. 14. They will finish up their season against Stanfield Oct. 16 and Umatilla Oct. 21.
