Aglow fellowship plans meeting

Women's Aglow Fellowship will meet Tuesday, Oct. 21. Everyone attending may participate in the meeting by reading a scripture passage, a poem, singing, or listening.

The meeting will be at the 4-H Annex Building at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner, beginning at 7 p.m.

Women of all church denominations are welcome. Those wishing to arrange for a babysitter may call Marie Key, 422-7532.

Mini-forum canceled

A 4-H leaders mini-forum scheduled for October 18 has been canceled, Birdine Tullis of the Extension Service has announced. Too many events conflicted with the time selected, she said, so not enough leaders would have been able to attend.

All Saints' welcomes Rev. Whiting

All Saints' Episcopal parish will be welcoming the Rev. Francis Whiting from Portland this Sunday as guest preacher and celebrant. Fr. Whiting brings a most interesting spiritual journey to share with the parish says the Rev. Izzett. There will be no early Holy Communion Service Oct. 19 and Oct. 26. The regular service will be conducted on these Sundays at 10:30.

Sunday, Oct. 26 will feature an All Parish Luncheon to be held immediately following the worship service.

All Saints' will be serving at the Senior Mealsite on Monday, Oct. 20.

The All-Church Halloween Party will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 29 at 7 p.m. Costumes are encouraged.

Seniors sponsor Saturday rummage sale

By Avon Melby

Senior Citizens are holding a rummage sale and auction this Saturday, Oct. 18 to raise funds for the proposed Senior Center.

Doors will open at the fair pavilion at 9 a.m. when the rummage sale will start. Seniors say there is a large selection of clothing for sale.

Auction will start at 10:30 with a large variety of items. One highlight will be a 1976 Chevette which has recently been overhauled. There is a sauna, a console radio/record player, a trash burning kitchen stove, fishing poles with reels, and much, much more.

Lunch will be available at noon.

Garden club learns to dry flowers

By Eva Hamlett

Ione Garden Club met at the home of Norma Rea on October 8 to hear Dorothy Burcham give instruction on drying flowers. She said that one could use silica gel, borax or Boardman sand with the flowers covered and in an air tight container and that they would retain their natural color.

Plans were made of those who will be attending Blue Mountain District No. 10 meeting on October 16 at the Senior Center in Irrigon.

The next garden club meeting will be at the home of Jean Nelson with Eva Lou Griener of Condon telling about ducks in Oregon using her blue-ribbon winning Bird Scrapbook as source material.

Important merchants meeting Friday

There will be a meeting of the Heppner Merchants Committee this Friday 12 noon at Charlie's Pizza. The meeting will be to discuss plans for the upcoming Moonlight Sale and for Christmas promotions so all merchants are urged to attend," says committee president David Sykes.

Local students pledge OSU fraternities

Two local students have pledged fraternities at Oregon State University this fall.

Eric Pointer, Ione, has pledged Alpha Gamma Rho, and Brian Byrd, Irrigon, has pledged Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
