Chamber Chatter

by Claudia Hughes
Chamber Manager

-Bored? There's a treat in store for you on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday, or Sunday afternoon between 1 and 5 p.m. Where? Right under your nose at Heppner's Morrow County Museum. In just a few minutes you can step back in time and learn much about the colorful history of your county. Curator Rachel Harnett will be happy to assist in your exploration. Take a guest along or make it a family outing. Even if you've visited before, you'll see things you missed on your second trip through.

-Visiting the museum might even trigger an inspiration for Heppner's tourism theme. Elsewhere in the Gazette you'll learn about this contest and the $50 gift certificate to be awarded at the Town 'n Country Banquet, November 21. Consider our heritage and attractions that would cause visitors to drop in on Heppner's friendly folk. The more entries, the better.

-While we're on the subject of tourism, Martha Doherty is attending the Tourism Conference in Seaside and will report back at the Tourism Meeting, Monday, October 28, 8 a.m., Extension Conference Room.

-Thought for the week: "Nothing is all wrong. Even a broken clock is right twice a day."

Obituary

Irena (McFerrin) Thomson

Irena (McFerrin) Thomson, 66, formerly of Heppner died October 6, 1986.

Memorial services were held at 2 p.m. October 9 at the Congregational Church in Grand Marais, Minnesota, with the Rev. Ben Crosby officiating, assisted by Paul Phillips.

Born in Heppner, November 14, 1920, she was the daughter of Amy and Jeff McFerrin.

She was married to Curtis M. Thomson on April 15, 1940. Mr. Thomson died September 26, 1976. After their marriage, Mr. Thomson worked at the Thomson Bros. Dept. Store for a few years and then they moved to Poulsbo, Washington, then to Texas and in 1956 to Grand Marais, Minnesota, their permanent home.

Mrs. Thomson worked for Cobblestone Oil as a bookkeeper for 20 years, and her husband was with the Border Patrol.

Survivors include a son, Richard Thomas of Duluth, Minnesota, a daughter Carole Thomson (Phillips) of Wellesley, Massachusetts, a daughter, Joy Sykora of Bemidji, Minnesota, three grandchildren Patrick Thomson, Ryan and Katherine Sykora and two sisters, Reta Thorpe, Heppner and Norma Vaughn, Silverton.

Fair and Rodeo court tryouts set

Newly appointed Morrow Fair and Rodeo Queen Cindy Davis, her mother Judy Davis, Court Director Micky Madril and Court Chaplains Marlene Currin met with last year's chaperone Gail Papow last Thursday to discuss color and style preferences for the court wardrobe.

No firm decisions will be made until after the parade is selected, the ladies said.

Princess tryouts are Sunday, Oct. 26, 1-3 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds. Two princesses will be chosen to represent the county at numerous public appearances. Applicants must be at least 16 years old by August 1, and a resident of Morrow County.

Correction

Last week's article about the Heppner Bookworms stated that Lorena Jones presented the book review at Sylvia McDaniel's home on October 14. Helen Currin gave that day's review on "The Great Alone" a historic look at changing Alaska. Lorena Jones will be the reviewer on Oct. 28, when the club meets at the home of Florence Green.
