All Saints' begins stewardship campaign

All Saints' Parish will initiate their annual stewardship campaign this coming weekend. Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. the volunteers for calling on the members of the church will meet for orientation and instructions. They will be led by Rev. Izzett and Robert Gibson of Bend, who is the Stewardship Director for the Diocese of Eastern Oregon.

On Sunday, Oct. 26 there will be no early service and all members are asked to attend the 10:30 worship hour where again Mr. Gibson will be giving the special message for the day. Immediately following the morning service a special luncheon will be provided for all in attendance. This meal will be served at 12:15 and will be catered and served by the lone Grange. All are asked to come and enjoy this full turkey dinner.

On Wednesday, October 29, the church Halloween party will be held from 6:30 until 8 p.m. This will be a dessert affair and the children and adults are encouraged to come in costume. Prizes will be awarded and there will be games and other activities during the evening.

Pre-holiday bazaar planned

Members of Heppner's Methodist congregation and friends are speeding up preparations for their annual early November, pre-holiday bazaar. This sale features hand crafted items, home prepared foods and a nutritious noon meal.

The United Methodist Women's president Cara Costa, has been encouraging bazaar preparations all year. Sylvia McDaniel has been keeping her line busy reminding everyone of the plans.

The first Saturday-in-November couldn't come any earlier than it does this year when it happens on the first day of the month. The sale will start at 9 a.m. and the noon meal will be served between 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 1.

All who are helping set up this sale should come to the church basement on Friday afternoon, Oct. 31. The UMW will not hold another group meeting until the first Wednesday evening of December, which is December 3.

Class offers tips for holiday survival

Skills for surviving and enjoying the holiday season will be discussed in a special course to be offered by Blue Mountain Community College this fall.

The one-night-only class will meet from 7 to 10 p.m. in Heppner on November 4.

Students planning to take the course need to register two days before the class so that adequate supplies may be purchased for sampling. Cost is $5 for the class plus $2 lab fee.

Topics that will be covered to help students make the most of the holiday are: setting family holiday traditions, holiday scheduling countdown for planning ahead; holiday entertaining, an open house sample menu, plus recipes, garnishes for the holidays, holiday table settings and centerpieces, and holiday decoration for the inside and outside of your home. Demonstrations are planned on how to make a wreath and several other holiday decorations.

Other topics will include ideas for gifts that don't cost a lot of money, ideas for adding a personal touch to the holidays, gift wrapping ideas and holiday stress-buster ideas.

BMCC instructors, Julie Reese of Adams and Deborah Lee of Milton-Freewater, have a full evening planned with the hope that students will be inspired to plan ahead to avoid holiday stress and at the same time, do something special for the holidays, says a news release from the college.

Church celebrates anniversary

Lexington Baptist Church will celebrate its second anniversary Sunday, Oct. 26.

A full day of activities are planned beginning with 9:45 a.m. Sunday school classes for all ages. Roma Belcher will show slides and talk about her travels in South Africa at the 11 a.m. morning worship service. A potluck will begin at 12:30, and be followed by an informal time of worship and song.

Lions slate work day

The Heppner Lions Club will have a work day Saturday, Oct. 25, to prepare city hall for painting.

All Lions Club members are urged to meet at Heppner City Hall 9 a.m. Saturday morning and anyone who has paint scrapers or wire brushes should bring those.

Wranglers plan awards banquet

A Wranglers Awards Banquet is planned for Sunday, Oct. 26 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner. The potluck will begin at 6:30 p.m.

For more information, call Gail Papineau, 422-7518.

Watercolor class planned

A beginning watercolor class sponsored by the Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts Assoc. will be offered October 31 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and November 1 from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Instructor for the class will be Tina Sharp. Anyone interested in registering for the class may call Vo-Jean Forquer, 676-5408, or Betty Mills, 676-5546, for more information.

Community friendship tea planned

Lexington Baptist Church is sponsoring a community friendship tea at 10 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 23 at the church.

All women of the area are invited to come and meet Roma Belcher, a traveling missionary teacher to women and children in South Africa, said Linda Panter, a spokesperson for the event.

Needlecraft program slated

Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts Assoc. will meet October 27 at Charlie's Pizza for a no-host dinner at 6:30 p.m. A business meeting will follow at 7 p.m.

A needlecraft program is planned. Mabel Heath will show an Amish form of quilting called "Around the World." Members are asked to bring samples of their needlework to show.

Seniors list fund raising projects

By Justine Weatherford

After weeks of work collecting, sorting and arranging pre-used sales goods, the Senior Citizens were pleased to sell and auction much of a large assortment between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 18 at the county fairgrounds.

The seniors will have a Food Sale on Tuesday, Oct. 28 in front of Central Market. This is planned to be helpful to elk hunters and will include freshly baked cakes, pies, cookies and bread. This sale will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until all is sold.

Also the seniors are working to sell a truckload of wood. Donations are asked at $1 per ticket or $5 for seven tickets. The winner will be announced at Thanksgiving time, and the wood will be delivered to the lucky ticket holder's home.

Money realized from the various on-going senior projects is needed for furnishings for a projected Senior Center, especially for its kitchen area.

First aid course offered

A Multi-Media Standard First Aid Class will be given October 27 and 30 at 6:30 p.m. at the Heppner High School library.

Please contact John Edmundson, 676-5177, if you want to take this class.

Nursing home plans Halloween open house

An open house is planned at Pioneer Memorial Hospital Nursing Home for 6:30 - 8 p.m., October 31. Children and parents may meet in the hospital lobby; they will be escorted to the residences to get their treat.

Crop insurance seminar planned

A Multi-Peril Crop Insurance Seminar will be sponsored by Wheatland Insurance and Crop Hall Management at Willows Grange Hall in Lone on October 29. Changes in crop insurance programs for the 1987 crop year will be explained. The seminar begins at 7 p.m.

Pie and coffee will be served at 9 p.m. at the conclusion of the seminar. There is no charge.

Hear 'n Their

By Eva Hamlett 422-7557

Members of the Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge went to Heppner October 15 for a no-host luncheon at the Bowling Alley. They were joined there by Ida Coleman of Heppner and her daughter Jean Crawford of Portland. Following the luncheon the members adjourned to the home of Ida Coleman for their regular meeting. Election of Officers was held for the year 1987. Mildred (Mrs. Lloyd) Morgan was elected Noble Grand; Eva Hamlett, Vice Grand; Edith Matthews, Secretary; and Gladys Drake, Treasurer. The next meeting will be at the home of Edith Matthews on November 6. Thirteen members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree spent several days a week ago, visiting their daughter, Sharon Gelinis and family at Caldwell, Idaho. While there Sharon had a birthday dinner for her father, Leo Crabtree, whose birthday was October 16. On Saturday evening Cathy McCabe had a dinner for him at their ranch home in Lone.

Dean and Laura Ekleberry of Wasco, were visiting in Lone on Monday of this week. They formerly lived in the Morgan area.

Helen Crawford, Ruth McCabe, Mildred Wright, and Jean Nelson attended the Oregon East Symphony's debut at Pendleton on Sunday afternoon. Rikka and Paul Tews also attended the debut. Afterwards the lone group went to the home of Fred and Helen Nelson for refreshments.

Beechers Cafe closed early on Sunday afternoon to move furniture, etc., as they were laying new linoleum in the cafe part and in the kitchen on Monday, along with cleaning and remodeling.

A new sign was installed Tuesday at Charlie's Pizza and Video World in Heppner.

Re-Elect RAY FRENCH

for COMMON SENSE in the Legislature District 59

Ray voted to reduce L.C.D.C. budget.

His record, as a member of the Human Resources Committee, shows he is concerned about the personal well being of the people of District 59.
Ray believes that District 59 needs to maintain and strengthen the economic base in both timber and agriculture and develop tourism for our area.
Ray will continue to maintain a Common Sense approach to government in the Oregon legislature.
Committee to Re-Elect Ray French, Norma French-Treasurer
