Pomona holds Mikkalo meeting

By Delpha Jones

Wheatland Pomona Grange met at the Mikkalo Grange Hall on Saturday for a regular meeting with the Master, Annabelle Jaeger in the chair.

Roll call was taken, noting several absences. Eleanor Grant, a member of the state executive committee and husband Al Grant a member of the Grange Mutual Insurance board were escorted to the master's station, introduced and welcomed. Others recognized at this time were Jack Preston, member of the state membership committee and wife, Ron and Jerry Omeg and Denton Matlock of Monument, and the following subordinate Masters, Wilma Martin of Mikkalo Grange, August Strecker, of Spray and Delpha Jones of Lexington.

The Officers and Grange reports outlined the work being done to both the inside and outside of the Grange hall, card parties, dinners, visitations to other granges, and officers' training sessions.

Sister Eleanor Grant spoke to the grange about the principles of the order and that we were organized about 120 years ago and have progressed throughout the nation, in a great order for the benefit of the members and the communities. The organizers worked hard to make this success, with the real power being the social and educational functions, of the order. It helps to develop leadership, by involvement in the programs and workings of the order. She recognized Delta Johnson as Past District No. 4 GWA chairman and Margerat Akers as Past District No 6 GWA chairman. Dean and Vickie High of Poe Valley Grange are the Outstanding Youth couple of the year.

Mr. Grant talked on the insurance briefly, and urged those with insurance to contact your agent, as there are changes throughout the years in the companies and one may need to update the policy.

A resolution committee of August Strecker, Lizzie Evans, and Ralland Johnson was appointed.

The Ag committee report was interesting especially with the number of acres in both counties that have been put in the program. The grain looks good, but there has been some reseeding due to weeds, etc. A report was heard on the farming in southern Oregon. The Grants reported that the barley is most all in, and the potatoes are nearly finished. There is a new starch plant in that area that makes the starch from the culled potatoes, a horse radish processing plant, due to the high production in horseradish. The banks are sometimes having to cause much hardship on the growers moneywise.

The legislative chairman Berl Akers, gave a report on the signing of the new tax bill, and the Columbia River Gorge bill. He spoke of the need of more constructive information on the amendments, and that perhaps we need more printed information in the bulletin on the pros and cons of the measures. We need to study all these measures and then stand up for what we believe and be able to discuss these measures rationally.

The GWA chairman reported on six reports being received this quarter wtih money-making projects and much needed work done on the buildings.

Resolution committee reported on No. 1 thanks to Mikkalo Grange for the fine dinner and hospitality. No. 2 postponing resolutions at the State Grange session.

It was reported that Karmen and Willard French of the Willows Grange have both been ill. Reported the death of Charles Buchanan, steward of Pomona Grange and Lexington Grange.

An election for Pomona Steward was held with August Strecker getting the position.

There was a short discussion on moving the Oregon State Grange headquarters to Salem. There are pros and cons to this move which will take some deliveration.

A cake walk followed a fine dinner, and a program consisting of several guitar and vocal solos were heard from Tina Jaeger and a most educational talk by Jim Murphy, county agent of Gilliam County. He spoke on the wheat program, acre set-aside, and the new tax bill, such as capital gains, corporate farms, etc. He gave copies of articles from the Farm Journal and the Wheat League, saying it was a question of who will get poor.

The roll call was as follows: Spray 2; Greenfield 0; Clarno 0; Lexington 5; Rufus 2; Rhea Creek 0; Willows 3; Mikkalo 9; Cherry Park 4; Poe Valley 2; and Monument 1.

Spray Grange will have a flea market on November 15, and Willows Grange a bazaar and turkey dinner November 16.

The meeting adjourned at 4:15 p.m.

Next meeting will be with Greenfield Grange on January 31.

Around About

By Justine Weatherford

Wasn't every form of communication kept extra busy with election news? Last month if one wasn't concerned about politics or civic affairs or had no interest in sports or had no garden and yard to put to rest, one's life might have been a bit dull.

During October many organizations had annual fall meetings. The Historical Society's officers are working on plans for field trips. The District Garden Clubs gathered in the Stokes Landing Senior Center at Irrigon and the clubs of this and nearby counties were given awards for 1986 achievements. After that meeting some of the gardners visited the nearby Cactus Greenhouse which is a most interesting and educational place.

Now that the western route through this county to LaGrande is in fine shape it is good to know that the Tourism Committee and the various civic groups are really getting busy with promotional plans. When the projected park near the Willow Creek Dam and reservoir is completed that will be a fine attraction which should draw folks to Heppner and induce them to travel the Western Route.

My recent travel experience into southwestern Canada was delightful. I spent four days and all of two nights on VIA, the Canadian train system like our Amtrak. We viewed magnificent mountains, many lakes, assorted farmland and clean, well-planned cities. i had my second 1986 look around beautiful Vancouver, B.C. and my first-ever look at Edmonton and Calgary, Alberta's beautiful cities.

The world's largest fun, fashion and entertainment center, the West Edmonton Mall, was a big feature of this tour. It has a huge waterpark where folks swim, ride a huge and complex waterslide and enjoy jumping the waves as they break under the palms on an Hawaiian-like beach. The mall boasts the greatest indoor fantasyland amusement area where there are dozens of unusual rides and games, of a National Hockey League size ice arena, of an 18-hole miniature golf course and of displays of unusual animals and birds.

There are 820 stores and services under the great glass, steel and concrete roof, including 19 movie theaters, 11 major department stores, 55 show stores, 210 ladies fashion shops, 35 mens shops, more than 100 restaurants and 345 other assorted businesses hoping to sell everything from soup to nuts and from cars to computers. This mall is open 365 days of the year and declares "It never rains or snows in our world."

The tour group I went with from Oct. 22 through Oct. 29 didn't need to be under any roof as the weather stayed great until we were almost home. In Canada we saw folks still wearing summer shorts and sun dresses.

Southwestern Canada is surely spectacular and its citizens are proudfully promoting their well-groomed cities, parklands, farms, businesses and homes.

Weddings

Breeding—Woods

Henry M. (Max) and Betty Breeding, of Gresham, announce the marriage of their son, Dale Cecil to Tina Marie Woods daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Woods of Oneonta, N.Y.

The young couple were united in marriage at All Saints Church in Charlston, South Carolina, on Friday, Oct. 31.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length white silk gown with floor length veil.

They were attended by Steve and Tami Schroeder shipmates of the groom. They will make their home in Charleston where the groom is a B.T.3 in the U.S. Navy.

He is the grandson of Lydia Wilson of Heppner and the late Lola Breeding of Lexington.

Pays to be a nerd

It may pay to be low on the social ladder if you are an Alaskan Dall's sheep reports National Wildlife magazine. Male Alaskan mountain sheep who expend their energy on breeding and belligerence to gain high social standing in the summer, are often left weakened and vulnerable for the bitter winter. This prompted one biologist to say, "It must pay to be a nerd in (Dall's) sheep society."

Insulate Water Meters Now

Insulate your water meter for the winter months. You may use gunny sacks, insulation, rags in a plastic bag, etc. PLEASE, DO NOT USE SAWDUST OR BARK. If you have had frozen pipes in the past, it is advisable to let a faucet run at a fast drip during extremely cold weather. Any damages resulting from frozen water meters that have not been insulated will be repaired at the owner's expense. You will be billed a minimum until the meters are read again in mid-March.

Thank you,
