Weddings

Cooper-Chapman

Connie Sue Chapman became the bride of Perry Ross Cooper in a Saturday, October 4 ceremony at the Red Lion Motor Inn in Pendleton. The Rev. Eldon Hibbard, Pendleton, officiated at the ceremony. Leah Cooper and Beth Forrar of Hermiston sang wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Robert and Betty Chapman of John Day. The bridegroom is the son of Glenn and Susie Cooper of Heppner.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a blue satin dress trimmed with white lace and an elbow-length veil with floral headpiece. She also wore her grandmother's antique bracelet.

Matron of Honor was Deborah Escobedo of Pendleton. Best Man was Darin Molesworth of Mosier. Bob Pierce, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Phil Chapman, the bride's brother, were ushers at the ceremony.

A reception at the Red Lion followed the ceremony. Bev Jahncke and Barb Kinsley served cake; Dee Stahl served coffee; and Gayle Benthin served punch. Carolyn Molesworth attended the guest book.

The bride attended Blue Mt. Community College. The bridegroom also attended BMCC and is in the U.S. Air Force.

Heeringa-McKinney

Elizabeth McKinney of Everson, Washington, the daughter of Leland and Grace McKinney of Fairbanks, Alaska, became the bride of Raymond L. Heeringa September 27 at a double ring ceremony in Lynden, Washington. He is the son of Ron Heeringa and Marie Heeringa, both of Lynden, Washington.

The Rev. Ron Slater read the service. Soloists were Len and Jayn Van Beck of Lynden. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an off the shoulder charmeuse gown with beaded silk Venice lace and a cathedral train.

Maid of Honor was Kris Horn of San Jose, California, a friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Char Wagter of Lynden, Washington, a sister of the bridegroom, and Donna Allen of Lynden, a friend of the bride. Best Man was Rick Heeringa of Custer, Washington, a brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Gary Pitman of Lynden, Washington, a brother of the bridegroom, and Kenn McKinney of Lynden, a brother of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the couple will reside in Everson, Washington. The bride is employed at Bornstein's Seafoods in Bellingham. The bridegroom works for Bode's Ready Mix in Lynden, Washington.
