

Seniors draw winning names

Chief Rathbun's Tips

Personal Protection Yourself and Your Property Walking

1. Never hitch hike, under any circumstances.
2. Avoid dark and deserted places, especially alleys and parking lots.
3. Carry a flashlight at all times, even if it is daylight and there is a chance you will be returning late.
4. Don't walk by yourself, always go with a friend if at all possible.
5. Don't stop for anyone, not even to give directions.
6. If someone looks or acts suspiciously, walk into the nearest business or house and call for assistance.

Service News

Airman Christopher Cole
Airman Christopher P. Cole, son of Teresa A. Cole of St. Petersburg, Fla., has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

During the six weeks of training the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

His wife, Paula, is the daughter of Bethal and Paul Heinrichs of Heppner, Ore.

He received an associate degree in 1983 from Portland Community College, Ore.
