Funds donated for equipment

The Heppner Volunteer Fire Dept. received a $100 donation from Charlie and Lisa Wisdom, operators of Charlie's Pizza and Video World. The money was raised at the restaurant New Year's Eve. "The money will be used to purchase much needed equipment required by OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Advisory Council)," Fire Chief Forrie Burkenbine said.

Community Calendar

DMV office closed next Tues.

The Heppner office of Department of Motor Vehicles will be closed Wednesday, Jan. 14 because the examiner will be attending conference in Salem. Thursday, Jan. 15 travel to Condon will also be canceled. The Heppner office will be open as usual the following week, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 20-21.

Annual meeting planned Jan. 19

Willow Creek Country Club will hold its annual meeting on Monday, January 19, at 7:30 p.m. at the Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative Conference Room in Heppner. All members and prospective members are urged to attend.

Several important items are on the agenda including the election of officers, review and vote on the 1987 budget, and discussion concerning membership in Oregon Golf Association.

Square dance lessons begin Jan. 15

"Shape up by squaring up" is the theme for a new session of square dance lessons being offered by the lone Grand Squares on Thursday nights. The first lesson will be January 15 at 7 p.m. in the lone Grade School Gym. "Square dancing is a fun way to get a lot of exercise by just walking to music" says instructor Cindy Osterlund. The lessons are for anyone age 10 and over with or without a partner. Young children are welcome to attend lessons with their parents. There will be a $10 charge per person for the four month session. For further information, call Osterlund, 422-7173.

Merchants to plan year's events

The Merchants committee will hold their annual meeting to plan the coming year's events Monday, Jan. 19 at Charlie's Pizza and Video World.

All merchants and spouses are welcome to attend the 6 p.m. no-host. Each family should bring a potluck salad or dessert. Officers will be elected.

Pre-teens invited to series of classes

All fifth, sixth and seventh graders in the area are invited to attend a series of classes on preparing for adolescence, beginning Sunday, Jan. 18 at 9:30 a.m. at All Saints Episcopal Church.

about how to face these most difficult years.

The program, which will continue approximately six weeks, includes tapes by Dr. James Dobson, a leading Christian psychologist, who shares his insights and concerns.

The series is designed to help students handle group pressures; learn about the dangers of drug abuse and alcoholism, and discover what God says about our worth as human beings.

Missionary to Nigeria to speak Sun.

Rev. James W. Macauley will be guest speaker at a special missions service Sunday morning, Jan. 11 at 11 a.m. at the Christian Life Center, the Rev. Doug Akeson has announced.

The classes will be lead by Suzanne Jepsen and Aloha DeSpain.

Macauley and his wife, Patsy, have served as missionaries in Nigeria since 1968. During this past term, he held the position of President of Assemblies of God Divinity School, Field Chairman of the Assemblies of God missionaries in Nigeria and a member of the Executive Committee of the Nigerian Assemblies of God General Council. He also served on the Board of Governors for both the Nigerian Advanced School of Theology of Nigeria and the West African Advanced School of Theology, Lome, Togo.

Long teeth attract mates

For walrus, getting long in the tooth is something to be proud of. "National Wildlife" magazine reports that scientists believed that walrus used their yard-long canine teeth to haul themselves up onto the arctic ice. Now researchers think the tusks serve as ornaments to attract mates and intimidate rivals.

Macauley will relate the achievements and goals of missions in Nigeria, particularly those concerning education, at this special rally. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Emission laws apply

"Financing Your Small Business", an easy-to-use, self-help workbook for the small business operator, is now available from the Small Business Development Center in Pendleton.

The workbook takes the reader step by step through the preparation of a loan proposal. The workbook shows the reader how to determine financial needs, how to find sources of financing, and how to prepare and present a loan proposal.

Created in 1984, Blue Mountain Community College's Small Business Development Center helps small business owners develop management skills through training, information, resources, referrals, and business counseling. For more information, call the center at 276-6233.

4-H Clubs

North Lexington Livestock

The North Lex. Livestock 4-H club met December 28, 1986 with 13 members present.

The meeting was opened by President Kyle Broderick. Then club leader, Gerri Greib introduced Julie Greib who works at the National 4-H center. She talked to club members about various subjects. The meeting was then closed. Refreshments were served by Jason Proudfoot.

No date has been set for the next meeting.
