1 CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank my precious family and good friends for their loving concern for me while I was in the hospital. The many calls, cards, flowers, visits, food, and especially for your prayers.

I used to think, "wait till they feel better to call or visit." I found out that a person is never too sick to respond to a friend's smile and words of love and concern from their family.

Special thanks to Pioneer Memorial Hospital for their kind emergency care. Dr. Thiessen, Vicki Birkby, for being on call so early in the morning, to Penny Miller, and Rusty Estes for the ambulance transport to Hermiston hospital and to John Hempel and staff for admitting Tommy into the Nursing Home on very short notice and his good care he's still receiving.

Thanks to the Christian friends of the nursing home residence. Tommy was admitted to the nursing home Christmas Eve, still he received two nice Christmas gifts from under their tree. These were from ladies who make sure the nursing home residents have a beautiful Christmas and everyone received at least two gifts.

I love and appreciate everyone of you. I do love and appreciate my family so much.

Lovingly and with a smile
Anna Mae, George
& Tommy Steagall
