

Cards lose big to Arlington

Amy Wagenblast (25) goes for loose ball against Arlington.

The Lone Cardinals lost big to the Arlington Honkers. Although the Cardinals applied a full court press at different times during the game, and created turnovers, they were never really in the game after the first quarter.

The Cardinals could do nothing right in the ball game. Shooting was 29% from the field, 50% from the foul line, and they got a total of 16 rebounds in the game. A figure out of place for the game is 18 steals, which shows that the effort was there, but to no avail. Deena Hams had 9 steals, Patty McElligott and Jo Cupps had 3 apiece.

Although the Cardinals appear to be in a late season slump, they still have an opportunity to go the district tournament if they win their last three league games. As everyone knows, once the district games start, it is an all new ball game open to the team that wants it the most.

Score: Lone 14, 8, 10, 3, 33; Arlington 21, 15, 10, 15, 61. C. Rudball 2, 3-6; V. McElligott 2, 0-0; A. Hams 5, 3-4; J. Wagenblast 1, 2-4; J. Cupps 2, 0-0; J. Davison. Morrow: Totals 12, 9-18, 33.
