Special pre-school story hour planned

Pre-schoolers at the April 16 story hour will receive a special surprise from the Easter Bunny. Story hour is held each Thursday from 10:30-11 a.m. at the Heppner Public Library.

All pre-schoolers are welcome to attend. Adult volunteer readers are needed to help with the weekly program.

Bike a-thon will benefit CF Foundation

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation has appointed Marvin Peterson chairperson of the annual Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-Thon in lone.

The event is scheduled to begin at Lone High School Parking lot 10 a.m. Saturday, May 2. Money received will benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's programs in research, care and education.

Prizes in the Bike-a-Thon will be awarded to participants based on the amount of money they collect and include T-shirts, AM-FM cassette recorders, 5" black and white T.V.'s and more.

Grand prizes include a Disneyland vacation for two, computer, color T.V.'s and more.

For a sponsor form or more information on the Bike-a-Thon, call Marvin Peterson at 422-7131.

Support group forms

Home Buddies, a social support group for young mothers will meet April 21 from 9:30 - 11 a.m. in the Heppner Methodist Church basement.

Heppner Elementary Principal Don Cole will talk about pre-school screening clinics at 10 a.m.

Modeled after the national organization, Mothers of Pre-Schoolers, Home Buddies hope to meet monthly and provide volunteer babysitting.

For further information, call Kay Proctor, 676-9827.

Good Friday food sale planned

Heppner TOPS will have a Good Friday food sale, April 17 on Main St. in front of the Heppner Post Office beginning at 9 a.m. Easter treats will be featured.

Officers for the coming year were installed at a recent meeting.

The club will sponsor an April 25 rummage sale. For further information, or to offer donations, call Betty Rood, 676-5391.

Golf class begins April 25

Blue Mountain Community College's Beginning Golf class starts Saturday, April 25, 8 a.m. at Willow Creek Country Club. According to instructor Charlie Rawlins all the basics of the game will be covered in the six weekly sessions and students will need to bring their own equipment. Registration information is available from BMCC Coordinator Marsha Sweek at 676-5039.

Training program offered alcohol servers

An alcohol-server training program is planned for the Pendleton Elks Lodge Saturday, April 18. A split session is also offered evenings April 20 and 21.

Late enrollment for the Saturday session is from 7:30 - 8:30 a.m. Saturday. Late enrollment for the Monday Tuesday sessions is from 5-6 p.m. each day.

4-H Summer Week applications due

All older 4-H'ers (8th - 12th grade) recently received applications for 4-H Summer Week at Corvallis. The application forms are due in Morrow Extension Office right now. Registrations must be in Corvallis soon so all plans may be finalized.

Late enrollment for the Saturday session is from 7:30 - 8:30 a.m. Saturday. Late enrollment for the Monday Tuesday sessions is from 5-6 p.m. each day.

Other special items to be noted are 4-H Newspaper, Delegate Council, A Day at the Coast, Willamette Float Trip, and Marine Science Workshop.

Additional copies are available at the Extension Office.

As a reminder, the application form was a buff color and included some special and new Summer Week opportunities said Birdine Tullis of the Morrow County Extension Service. The form also included

Pre-school screening clinic slated

Screening clinics are scheduled next month for those Morrow County students who will be entering school for the first time this fall. These pre-school clinics are for those children who will be five years age by September 1 and will be held at A.C. Houghton School, Irrigon, Tuesday, May 26; Sam Boardman Elementary Wednesday, May 27, and Heppner Elementary School Thursday, May 28. The screening in Heppner is for both lone and Heppner youngsters.

It is necessary for parents to schedule appointments for the clinics and this may be done by calling: A.C. Houghton-922-3321, Sam Boardman-481-7383, or Heppner 676-9218.

Parents are to bring to the clinics current immunization records and the birth certificate to verify age.

Toy business comes to Heppner

Kay Proctor has brought a new business, Discovery Toys, to the Heppner area. Because children learn what they play, she says, the company's goal is to provide quality toys to the general public. Educational toys, games, and books are available for ages birth to adult. Proctor works out of her home, 676-9827, and does both party plan and direct sales.
