4-H News

North Lex Livestock
By Nancy Morter
The North Lex Livestock 4-H club met at 2 p.m. April 5, at Grieb Ranches. The meeting was called to order and the minutes were read. The meeting was cut short so members could go look at heifers. Kenny Grieb explained what a good heifer should look like, because April 17, in Hermiston, there is a heifer judging contest. Kenny and Geri Grieb then showed 4-H'ers how to groom and show a steer by using a trained animal of their own. This was to show people taking steers how to get started. Refreshments were served by Geri Grieb.

Creeks stocked for April 25 opener

Legal-size trout were stocked in Willow Creek from Cutsforth down to the dam April 14 in preparation for the April 25 opening of Willow, Rhea, and Butter creeks to anglers. Legal trout were also stocked below Willow Creek Dam in the kids' fishing area. Fish and Wildlife biologist Glen Ward reported.

Fair superintendents to meet

The Morrow County Fair Committee is holding a Fair Superintendents meeting on April 28, 1987 at 2 p.m. at the pavilion on the fairgrounds. The 1987 Premium Books will be reviewed and corrections will be made for final printing of this year's book. The superintendents are asked to turn in their changes at the April 28

1987 club officers: Eldon Gilbert and Barbara Cutsforth, Ed and Marie Struthers, Ed and Beverly Gunderson, Doug and Sonja Smith, Rick and Susan Johnston.

Willow Creek Lake was stocked with 16,000 sub-legal trout two weeks ago, he said. They should grow to legal size in about two months, he added.

Only the three creeks open April 25. Other area creeks open later in May.

meeting. Those unable to attend the meeting may contact Marlene Currin, Fair Secretary before the meeting. "We look forward to a successful Fair for 1987. Without volunteer Superintendents assistance, we could not produce the Fair. Morrow County is fortunate to have such great citizens," Currin said.

Bikers will come to Heppner

Rose City Motorcycle Club of Portland plans to make Heppner the farthest east the club has ever come on their annual 500 mile run, May 9. 800-1,300 cycles will participate, depending on weather, a spokesperson said. The event is timed with cyclists leaving Portland every 10 cconds beginning at 4 a.m.

Bikers have been encouraged to drive at normal speeds and stop for meals and coffee.

The Heppner Chamber of Commerce will hand out tourism information and encourage them to visit again.

Learn to run better meetings

Magic of Meetings, a workshop for leaders of volunteer organizations is planned for Tuesday, May 12 from 6:30 - 9 p.m. at the Dodge City Inn Conference Room in Boardman.

Those attending the workshop will hear from Marlene Currin, Charlotte Carpenter and Cindy Osterland about how to establish rapport and build trust with people quickly, how to build and run a better business meeting, and how to deal with challenging personalities.

Fee for the workshop is $3.50. Registration fee may be mailed or taken to the OSU Extension Service office in Heppner.
