

Heppner drops 2nd match to Boardman

By Ashley Conklin
Heppner's boys golf team lost to Riverside last Thursday for the second time this season but the Heppner girls were victorious over their Riverside counterparts.

Without medalist Dan Struthers with a wrist injury, Heppner's boys fell to Riverside 298-360 in 18 holes.

Sofi Struthers shot a 44 and Benji Pearson a 46 to lead the Heppner girls to a slim 191-193 advantage over Riverside in nine holes.

Jason Michael led the victorious Pirate boys with a par 62 on the course. Carl Martin led Heppner with an 82.

"Jason Michael played really well," Heppner coach John Edmundson said. "Carl though played very well for us."

Edmundson was also very pleased with the girls team efforts.

"It was nice to win the match," he said, "and Benji Pearson played really well. She lowered her score by 10 strokes since our last match with Riverside."

Sheila Piper shot a 48 and Kelly

McLaughlin chipped in with a 53 as the Heppner girls got a strong overall team effort.

Heppner's junior varsity boys fell 193-198 in nine holes of action. Will Martin, with a 46, and Jim Clark, who stroked at 47, were cited by Edmundson for the excellent play.
