Bookworms end year

By Justine Weatherford
 The final meeting of the Bookworms for the 1986-87 year was Tuesday afternoon, May 12 at the home of Mary Goheen. Marge Gardner reviewed the book "Creek Mary's Blood."

The members agreed to resume twice monthly meetings on Tuesday, Sept. 8 with an evening potluck dinner at the Butter Creek home of Helen Currin.

Lexington yard awarded

Lawrence and Sharon Schoonover have been named winners of Lexington's Yard of the Month by the Garden Bugs. Their yard has areas for small children, a barbecue built of rocks, and lawn space for games, a Garden Bugs spokesperson said.

Portland gardens toured

By Justine Weatherford
 Seven members of the Heppner Garden Club enjoyed a tour of Portland Gardens which was arranged as a memorial to Jerry Doherty. The travelers were: Vern Batty, Ver-na Brinda, Martha Doherty, Kal Healy, Bebe Munkers, Jane Rawlins, Justine Weatherford, and Kal's sister Mary Doherty of Pendleton.

They enjoyed a pre-arranged guided tour and desert provided by ladies of several S.E. Portland Garden Clubs.

Moving across the Willamette, the group enjoyed a scenic drive among many lovely homes of Portland's west hills before arriving at the fabulous Japanese Gardens above Washington Park. There they were escorted through the five completed, traditional garden areas.

The final garden tour was at the Crystal Springs Rhododendron Garden in S.E. Portland's East Moreland district near the Reed College.

CAUTION BULLETIN

To all users of 2,4-D or like products:

The time period of May 5 to May 25 is a very critical time for the fruit set of 2,4-D sensitive crops like grapes and other broadleaf crops.

Please avoid spraying during this time period. If spraying is unavoidable, please restrict spraying to the most ideal climatic conditions.

For additional information, consult your local chemical dealer, applicator, or county extension agent.
