

Engagements

Engagements Wainwright — Kennedy

Larry and Ellen Kennedy of Heppner and Mary Ellen and Al Wainwright of Madras announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their children Stacey and Buz. The couple plans a 7 p.m. June 27 wedding at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner. A reception and dance will follow the wedding ceremony; friends and relatives are invited to attend.

The bride-elect is a 1987 graduate of Heppner High School and will attend Blue Mt. Community College this fall.

The bridegroom-elect attended Hermiston High School and is employed at Pioneer Implement in Hermiston.

1984 Fair and Rodeo queen to compete for Miss Rodeo Oregon title

Sylvia Ladd, 21, of Lone will be among seven contestants competing for the title of Miss Rodeo Oregon during the annual pageant, which is held in conjunction with the Umpqua Valley Round-Up Father's Day weekend in Roseburg.

Ladd is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ladd of Lone, a past Oregon State University Rodeo Queen, was Miss Congeniality and in the top 10 at the College National Finals Rodeo Queen Contest, the 1984 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Queen, and recently received her Bachelor of Science degree in Speech/Drama and Business from Eastern Oregon State College in La Grande.

The Miss Rodeo Oregon contestants will be judged in four areas:

horsemanship, speech, appearance, and personality. Winner of the 1987 Miss Rodeo Oregon title will receive a $1,000 wardrobe from Leavitt's Western Wear of Sisters; a Crates All-Around saddle from The Spotted Mule of Eugene and the Miss Rodeo Oregon Pageant, Inc.; and a Kenny Hanson buckle from Les Schwab Tire Centers of Oregon; plus numerous other gifts from Pageant sponsors around the state.

Miss Rodeo Oregon is the official representative from Oregon to the Miss Rodeo America Pageant held during the National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas in December. She will travel throughout the state of Oregon and neighboring states, promoting the sport of rodeo and the western lifestyle.

Kerbs — Van Schoiack

Kathleen Van Schoiack of Bend and Scott Alan Kerbs of Powell Butte have announced their engagement. The couple plans to be married September 12, 1987 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Robert Van Schoiack and the late Kathryn Van Schoiack of Heppner. She is a 1979 graduate of Heppner High School and a 1983 graduate of Good Samaritan Hospital School of Nursing. She is employed at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Carl and Nadene Kerbs of Saratoga, Wyoming. He is a 1973 graduate of Platte Valley High School and a 1977 graduate of the University of Wyoming.

Heppner Hotline

By Joyce Breeding, 676-5407

--Betty and Lee Vinson from Danville, California were here visiting Betty's brother Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill and Lee's sister Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson. They also visited Floss Breeding in Hermiston and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Lexington. At Monument they visited the L.D. Vinsons. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Harris at Bull Prairie.

--Alena Anderson's daughters Dee Erdman from Aloha and Nancy McLennan from Hillsboro were here visiting. Alena's brother Boyd Redding who is retired and traveling around also visited here. His wife was in Portland with her folks. She is the former Lois Ashbaugh. They were former Heppner residents.

--Mr. and Mrs. Dud Tash had recent visitors Della's sister Toots Brown from Salem. Toot's son Paul Brown from Irrigon brought her to Heppner. Della's son Jack Edmondson from Portland was here visiting also.

--Eleanor Gonty and Tom took a two week trip to Norfolk, Virginia, to visit Doug Gonty his wife Anastasia and granddaughter Sophia. They saw the Newport News's DeBarkation memorial where soldiers boarded ships for the trip to Europe during World War I. They toured the Navy base and went aboard the U.S.S. Iowa. Jamestown Museum the first permanent English settlement, and first political capital in North America. The Yorktown museum where Colonial General Greene cornered the British General Cornwallis and later surrendered to General Washington. They went to Washington D.C. stopped at Quantico Marine Base and toured Marine museum, Washington monument, and Smithsonian Museum of National History. They went to Bolling Air Force Base and stopped at Fredericksburg site of a decisive confederate victory over the Union Army. They report having a nice trip despite lost luggage, jackets, and getting lost themselves.

--Mrs. Lincoln Nash's sister Mrs. Walt Josewski from Forman, North Dakota, died recently from a heart attack. She had spent a summer here working and met quite a few people while here. Mary Ann Palmer, Bernice's daughter from Lone had eye surgery at St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

--Pat Brindle and Eleanor Gonty were in Bend to attend the Eastern Oregon Health assistance agency. Pat is the county representative. Eleanor also visited a former Heppner resident, Thelma Terrill.

Prock — Holland

Kelly Prock and Douglas Holland both of Milton-Freewater announce their engagement.

Prock is the daughter of Kenneth and Betty Prock of Milton-Freewater. She is a graduate of Milton-Freewater High School and Walla Walla Community College School of Nursing. She is a nurse at St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton.

Holland is the son of Dale and Karen Holland of Heppner. He is a graduate of Heppner High School. He also attended Eastern Oregon State College in LaGrande and has an Associates Degree in Agriculture from Blue Mt. Community College in Pendleton. He is presently employed by the HT Rea Co. in Milton-Freewater.

An August wedding is planned.

Epperly — Ruhl

Dana Marie Ruhl and Scott Epperly were married Saturday, April 11 at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. The bride is the daughter of Susan Reisman and Richard Ruhl, both of Roseburg, and the granddaughter of former Heppner residents Clinton and Marie McQuarrie. The bridegroom is the son of Floyd and Lenore Epperly of Roseburg.

The bride graduated from Roseburg Senior High in 1981 and received a general business degree from Umpqua Community College in 1985. She is employed by the Douglas County Road Dept. in Roseburg.

The bridegroom is employed at Gene's Brake and Alignment, Inc. in Roseburg.

Extension study groups to learn about conducting business at home

What should be considered if you are one of the talented people who create at home and want to sell your product, or perhaps, have a unique service that could provide additional income for your family?

Statistics and futuristic trends verify that more and more businesses will be conducted from homes in the coming years.

To help Extension staff prepare to assist local residents interested in learning more about conducting business at home, there is a need for responses. Please call or write OSU Extension Service, Box 397, Heppner (676-9642). Give your name and type of home based business you are considering.

Show Dad Your Taste Has Improved.

Over the years, some things have changed. Like your taste in clothes. And gifts.

So why not surprise him with a Father's Day gift that's a cut above the usual: Top Sirloin or T-bone steak, grilled to mouthwatering perfection.

You won't have to worry about sizes or patterns, steak is always in style. And instead of taking up space in the back of his closet, this gift will be put to use right away.

Make this Father's Day one he'll really savor. Serve him steak for dinner, and show him good taste runs in the family. Beef. Real food for real people.

OREGON BEEF COUNCIL
1000 NE Multnomah · Portland, OR 97232

Don't overlook
YOUNG DRIVER
DISCOUNTS
for a better GPA
and Drivers Training

VAN MARTER
& KAHL
INSURANCE INC.
P.O. BOX 755 • 187 NORTH MAIN STREET • HEPPNER

The Heppner
GAZETTE TIMES
676-9228
COPY PAPER
ream or carton

Skip and Sandy are getting married. We're having a party. Come join us at 4:00 at the Methodist Church, June 20, for the wedding or shortly after at the Elks for the reception.

Don & Jean Bennett
Don & Billie Matthews

The Children of Dean and Shirley Connor invite you to attend the celebration of their 25th Wedding Anniversary on June 21, 1987 2 - 4 p.m. the United Methodist Church —No Gifts Please—

All friends and relatives are cordially invited.