Tennis winners

By Ashley Conklin
Ken Snider and Angie Rudisill were the men's and women's winners of the Lone Tennis Tournament held this past weekend in conjunction with that city's Fourth-of-July festivities. The tournament which drew 24 entries according to tournament chairman Clint Krebs was held to "draw a little more interest" in the sport. "We had some good quality tennis played," Krebs added. Matt Warren and Nancy Spivey finished second in the men's and women's divisions respectively. Matthew Nelson and Tami Rietmann won the doubles title. "We want to encourage people to take part in the tournament," Krebs said. "Some people might think they're not good enough to play in the tournament and that's not the case." Krebs also singled out Dana Heideman and Eric Pointer as playing good tennis in the men's division and Marie Rudisill in the women's division who lost in the quarterfinals to her daughter, the eventual women's winner in the quarterfinals. "We're hoping to draw a little more interest for the tournament next year," Krebs added, "and we're looking forward to having the tournament again." Prizes for the tennis match were provided by B & C Repair, Beechers Lounge, Bristows Market and the Lone Cardinal Club.

Happy Half a Century, Harley!
Shshsh - We'll keep it quiet though. (What could be quieter than the printed page?)
