The Kinzua Story

LOGGING
 Kinzua Corporation owns 175,000 acres of timberland in five Eastern Oregon Counties. The Company also purchases timber from the U.S. Forest Service and private landowners. Sixty-eight people are employed in logging and log hauling contract operations for Kinzua. This represents an annual payroll of $4,100,000.

CHIP RELOAD
 Kinzua operates a chip reload facility for Longview Fibre Corporation in Boardman. At Boardman Kinzua employs five people and unloads an average of 45 truckloads per day. In the past 12 months there were 117,916 bone dry units of chips unloaded, which equals over 9,500 trucks or 124 barges of chips.

CO-GENERATION
 The co-generation plant at Kinzua in Heppner which went into operation January, 1985, produces 71,500,000 kilowatts of electricity. Fuel for the plant comes from chipped wood waste of the forest. The electricity is sold to P.G.E. and represents enough power to supply a town the size of Heppner with electricity. The co-generation plant employs ten people.
