1 CARD OF THANKS

Another Fair and Rodeo Parade is once again over and there are many people that need to be thanked. Special thanks to Bob Kahl for all the help you did, Larry Mills for another fine job of announcing, Cara Costa for helping at the numbering table, to the judges-Bobbie Angell, Becky Evans, Ginger O'Brien, John and Rene Grace, Sandy Holtz, Skip Mathews, LaRae Kindle, Cliff Green, Dave Green, Bob and Sue Jepsen, Jerald Rea, Tom Alexander, Robert Rolan, Dave Sykes, and everyone else I might have forgotten who worked on the parade. Last but not least thank you to the people who entered the parade because without you there wouldn't be any. Hope to see you in next year's parade.

Joyce Hughes
Parade Chairman

Thank you to all of the people who helped put our booth, talent show, float and ring toss together. It was a big success and couldn't have happened without your help.

CAMEL LOT REVISITED

Business was booming at the lot. Obediah decided to call it the Killarney Camel-Lot. The money maker was the Rent-A-Camel business. This was due to the fact that while Obediah was a captive slave he learned the secret process that enabled him to "Brick Up" the camels. This is a process which enables a camel to absorb an extra 3 1/2 gal. of water, and increased their range up to 25 miles. In fact business was so good that Obediah had to hire additional help. He put an ad in the local co-op paper, The Lamplit (a publication of the local Lamp Oil Co.) and immediately hired an olive oil salesman named Oily Slickman.

You probably missed Jimmy in the parade Saturday with his chaps and tall hat. The last we heard from him he was undergoing eye treatment at St. Ikes Clinic in Tel Aviv. Where it is reported he is coming along nicely.
