CAMEL-LOT 2

Business was still booming at the lot, in fact, Dily Slickwell had been promoted to sales manager and had to hire two reformed Arab goat thieves to help out with sales. Their names were Yuri Stealzum & Ali Sellzman, and it has been recorded that Obediah had bought 5000 acres overlooking the Jordan River - mostly olive and orange groves, with the intention of building a mansion. Meanwhile (back in modern times) Jimmy has been discharged from St Ikes Clinic with a clean bill of health; and the Israeli Immigration officials are checking up on his purported Jewish heritage. So until next week: DON'T MISS THIS!

CATTLE—CATTLE—CATTLE

SPECIAL LABOR DAY SALE
Monday, Sept. 7 - 10:00 a.m.

EARLY CONSIGNMENTS

There are over 2000 head of top quality yearlings, spring calves, fall calves, bred heifers, bred cows, cow and calf pairs, and butcher cows already consigned.

FEED PENS AVAILABLE

If you would like to bring your cattle in prior to the sale, we have pens under roof, with feed and water for 1500-2000 head and outside feed pens for 3000 head. All butcher cows brought in before Monday morning will sell the first of the auction.

TRUCKING ARRANGEMENTS

We can help you arrange transportation of your cattle to LaGrande. Several commercial carriers have committed trucks for both the consigned cattle and the cattle to be shipped after the sale.

MARKET TREND

Prices are advancing daily, demand is excellent, supply is short and feed is cheap across the entire United States. With these conditions, the competitive auction is the best way to market any cattle you may have to sell. IT'S GREAT.

PRICES EXPECTED

We can not, by government rules, guarantee price, but we can tell you that one buyer indicated he would pay $1.00 to $1.20 per hundred for the light steer calves and also needs the heifer mates. Another buyer phoned to inquire how many light yearling steers and heifers he could buy, expecting to pay over $80.00 cwt on steers and over $75.00 cwt on the heifers.

TRAVEL AND LODGING

Paved air strip 2 miles from the sale yard. Commercial flights into Boise and Pendleton with rides available to and from LaGrande's modern motels.

APPRECIATION DINNER

There will be an all you can eat, Baron of Beef Dinner with all the trimmings, at the Tropicana Restaurant beginning at 5:00 p.m. Free tickets will be given to all consignors and buyers. Any and all other ranch related or interested parties are more than welcome to attend the get together.
