Former G-T owners Couple celebrates 50th

Charlie and Dorothy Heard

Dorothy and Charlie Heard of Milton-Freewater celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sept. 5. The Heards were former owners of the Gazette-Times and have since retired at Milton-Freewater.

A party at the Lake of the Woods near Klamath Falls was held prior to the anniversary with many family members attending and hosted by their daughter and son-in-law, Judy and Charles Becker of Gold Beach and their son and his wife, Don and Sylvia Heard of Lake Oswego.

Friends of the couple are hosting an open house at St. James Episcopal Church September 13 from 2-4 p.m. Everyone is cordially invited to this Sunday celebration.

Dorothy Lake and Charles Heard were married Sept. 5, 1937 at Ontario, at the home of the bride with Pastor C. C. Hovda officiating. Don Lake and Cheslah Lake Young, brother and sister of the bride were their attendants.

The couple has three grandsons, Michael, Gard and Christopher Becker.

Valby Lutheran Church is hosting a harvest festival and smorgasbord with a concert by "Servant Song" on Monday, September 21, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Intended to be an expression of thanks to God for a bountiful harvest and a celebration marking the beginning of fall church activities, the evening will feature a potluck, the announcement of a "citizen of the year", and a Sunday School presentation. The highlight of the festivities will be a concert by "Servant Song."

Servant Song is a Christian musical group from the Lutheran Bible Institute of Seattle, consisting of seven talented alumni of L.B.I. who are spending this year traveling throughout the West and Midwest providing a ministry of music and witness.

The public is invited to attend. For further information call the Rev. Rick Evenson, 676-5069.
