Lexington Grange met on Monday evening for a regular meeting beginning with a potluck supper. The program was a most instructive session with the county planner, Deane Seeger giving a talk on the disposal area at Finley Butte. A short business meeting was held, at which time the Blue Mountain Fiddler's concert and stew supper were further discussed. This is planned for Saturday, Oct. 24 and all are most cordially urged to attend, as it, as in the years past, promises to be a fun evening. Lewis and Dot Halvorsen of Willows Grange were present for the evening. The program was public and there were several visitors present for this.

Myrtle Marshall is a patient in Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

Venice Hendrickson returned to her home in Pendleton Monday evening after several days spent at the home of her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones and Earl Miller visited Saturday in Union, with a brother and family of Earl's who have recently purchased a business there.

A cradle coffee hour was held at the Cecil Jones home on Monday afternoon honoring Renee Yocum, (Mrs. Jack Yocum) of Hermiston. Hosting the afternoon was the Holly Rebekah Lodge. Games were played and prizes won by Virginia Peck and Dorothy Burcham, who received baby articles, and were required to give to the honoree. Refreshments were served later by Leila Palmer the co-hostess for the afternoon.

Cammie and Scott Allard are the proud parents of a baby girl born in Kennewick. She weighed 6 lbs, 11 1/2 oz. and has been named Cassie Mae. Grandparents are Ray and Gae Papineau of Lexington.

Earl Miller is visiting relatives and friends in Lexington this week prior to returning to his work in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall were recent callers in Wilbur, Washington, at the home of a daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Greg Leyva. While there they attended a grandson's wedding in Spokane.

Charles (Chuck) Peck, son of Fran and Richard Peck was a guest at the potluck annual dinner of the Umatilla Speedway in Hermiston recently. Chuck was presented the Rookie of the Year and seventh place point winner awards. He brought home two trophies, one stock trophy dash and the sportsman dash award. He raced a 1971 Chevelle No. 33 at the Speedway this summer. He lives in Lexington and attends Heppner High School.
