Horse club hosts Halloween party

A "Spook-tacular" party for 4-H horse club members will be held November 1, 1987, at 1 p.m.

All Morrow County horse club members and families are invited to a horseback Halloween costume party at the Heppner Fairgrounds in door arena. Games, prizes for costumes, and refreshments will be part of the kick-off party to start the new 4-H year.

It is not necessary for all members to bring horses, as games will include team events and tandem ride activities.

Interested youth may enroll at the Extension Office and bring insurance premiums to the party. South Morrow County members are hosting the North Morrow County horse club members.

To attend Angus meeting

Gerri Grieb, Lexington, has been elected as a delegate to the 104th Annual Meeting of the American Angus Association, November 15-17 in Louisville, Kentucky, reports Richard Spader, executive vice president of the American Angus Association.

Grieb, a member of the American quarters in St. Joseph, Missouri, is one of some 275 Angus breeders who have been elected by fellow members of their state association to serve as a representative at the Annual Meeting. At this time, the state delegates will participate in the business meeting and elect a new president, vice president and five directors to the American Angus Association Board.

Hospital Notes

Heather Voltz, Heppner-admitted October 15, discharged October 18.

Gary Bingham, Heppner-admitted October 15, discharged October 16.

Bettie Doherty, Heppner-admitted October 17, discharged October 19.

Missionary to speak

Rev. Jim Billings, Assemblies of God missionary to Bolivia, South America, will be guest speaker at Christian Life Center, 535, W. Morgan, Heppner at 6 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 25, according to the Rev. Doug Akeson.

Billings and his wife Thelma, missionaries to Bolivia since 1974, are planning to continue their ministry to the professional people of Bolivia and start new churches which will have this emphasis.

Potato distribution planned

The Morrow County Neighborhood Council will sponsor a distribution of frozen potatoes at the Neighborhood Center building in Heppner beginning at 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 23. The distribution will be on a donation basis.

A distribution for the Boardman area will be planned at a later date.

Wranglers slate awards banquet

Wranglers Riding Club will hold their annual awards banquet Sunday, Oct. 25 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds Annex in Heppner. The potluck dinner will begin at 6 p.m. All Wranglers and friends are encouraged to attend.

Flood story told

The story of the June 14, 1903 flood appears in the November, 1987 issue of "True West" magazine. The article, written by Steve Warren of West Valley City, Utah, contains copies of original photos and quotations about the flood from 1903 newspapers. Warren researched the event and recounts several personal experiences of the fateful Sunday afternoon.

American Legion Auxiliary meets

The American Legion Auxiliary met Monday night, October 19, at the Legion Hall. It was their regular meeting with accompanying potluck.

The auxiliary will be selling tickets at the Moonlight Sale, October 29, for a cedar chest, made by Robert Reid, and a handmade quilt, made by Mable Heath and Linda Schultz. The drawing for the chest and quilt will be the middle of December, at a time to be announced. The tickets are $5.50 each or 3-$1.00, with the proceeds going to support the Girls State members and the local scholarship, presented each year by the Auxiliary. The chest is in the window of the Country Rose.

All members are to bring a gift or donation for the Veteran's Gift Shop to the next meeting to be held November 16 at the Legion Hall at 7 p.m. This will be a potluck.

The Christmas Party date has been set for Saturday, December 12. No details have been finalized.

Methodists plan special activities

This Friday evening, Oct. 23 will be the annual Church Conference of the Heppner United Methodist Church with District Superintendent, Rev. Joe Walker, presiding. The evening will begin with the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee meeting with Joe Walker at 5:30 p.m. Beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the church basement there will be an all church potluck dinner. Persons should bring a main dish, a salad or desert and their own table service. Drink will be provided. The meeting of the Church Conference will take place immediately following the potluck dinner. All persons of the church are encouraged and invited to participate in this important annual meeting of the church.

Sunday, Oct. 25 will be Christian Education Sunday at Heppner United Methodist. The worship service will center on the importance of Sunday School for all ages. This Sunday is also the annual "Hay Ride" and Halloween Party at the Doug Drake ranch following the worship service. Wear "grubby" clothes to church because the car pool to the Drake ranch will team immediately following the worship service. There will be food, home made apple cider and lots of fun for all ages at the Halloween party. The Sunday School is sponsoring this event and all persons of the congregation are invited to attend this very special fellowship time.

The community is also invited to make plans to worship with the Heppner United Methodist Church on November 8 when Bishop Calvin D. McConnell, Bishop of the Oregon-Idaho Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, will be the special guest in the pulpit. A potluck fellowship dinner will follow the worship service on November 8. Everyone is invited to participate in these, and all, activities of the Heppner United Methodist Church. Sunday School is held each Sunday at 9:30 a.m., and worship follows at 11 a.m.

Community Calendar

Princess tryouts being slated

The Morrow County Rodeo Committee will have the Princess Tryout Contest on Saturday, October 24 at 1 p.m. at the Heppner Fairgrounds.

Each contestant will be asked to perform a horsemanship pattern which will be judged on control of mount, balance of rider, position of hands, feet, seat, knowledge of patterns, presentation of ride, projection of rider, mounting, dismounting, grooming of horse, condition of tack, posture, poise, and overall appearance. Western attire is required. Judges for the contest will be Susan Evans, Robin Jones, and Cindee Henderson.

Following the horsemanship contest, the contestants will break to ready themselves for the speech contest. They must prepare a 2-3 minute speech on themselves, family, goals, school activities, serving on the court, riding experience, their horse, or anything else they consider interesting about themselves.

The Rodeo Committee will hold an interview with the contestant and her parents prior to the final vote being cast.

The general public is welcome to view the contest. Following the contest, the Fair Appreciation Dinner and the 4-H Achievement Night have combined to hold their potluck dinner at 5 p.m.

Moonlight Sale hours extended

Hours for next Thursday's Moonlight Sale have been extended, and will now run from 5 to 9 p.m.

The extended hours will give more people an opportunity to shop the sale, the Heppner Merchants Committee decided at its last meeting.

In addition to great sale items, shoppers will also enjoy the costumes local business people will be wearing, and the pumpkins on display from the Halloween pumpkin carving contest.

The Moonlight Sale will be held Thursday, Oct. 29 and if your group or organization would like to set up a money raising booth on the street, please contact the Gazette-Times.

Country club holds meeting

The Willow Creek Country Club will hold their Semi-Annual meeting on Friday, October 23, 1987 at the Heppner Elks Lodge beginning at 6:30 p.m. with a no-host dinner. The general business meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

All members are urged to attend.

Community Choir will sing

The Heppner Community Choir will sing at the Moonlight Sale on Thursday, Oct. 29.

The choir will be located next to the Post office and will sing starting at 7:30 p.m. for about 20 minutes.

Introducing the new MAGNUM 7110

And the first all-new tractors from Case IH

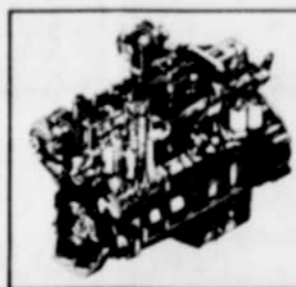

Case IH put more into the new MAGNUM tractor line than any farm tractors developed in over twenty years. Here's why you'll get more out of it:

MAGNUM means more. Outstanding field performance from a new 505 cubic inch turbocharged engine with reserve power. MAGNUM power.

The MAGNUM tractor's powershift puts 18-speeds of shift-on-the-go workpower at your fingertips—standard. And only MAGNUM tractors offer a full powershift creeper transmission with six additional speeds from 5 to 2.1 mph... for more control and performance. MAGNUM performance.

The MAGNUM tractor's new larger cab has 48 square feet of window area... virtually unobstructed visibility... more room... more seating comfort. MAGNUM comfort.

It all adds up: The Case IH MAGNUM 7110 tractor sets new standards for the 130 hp (97 kW) class... and for you. See us for details.

MAGNUM Power. More lugging ability and economy.

MAGNUM Comfort. A more productive environment.

MAGNUM Performance. 18-speed field and road performance.

MAGNUM means more.
