Attention computer Chamber Chatter enthusiasts

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

The NeoBytes Computer Club of Pendleton is presenting the Eastern Oregon Computer Fair on November 21, 1987 at the Hawthorne Elementary Gym located at 1308 S.W. Emigrant in Pendleton. The hours are from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and admission is free. There will be displays by local computer dealers of personal computers, software and accessories for business, farm, home, education and hobbyists. Also, there will be free seminars on desktop publishing, computer aided design and small business accounting. Come, bring the family, sign up for door prizes, and see what is new and exciting in personal computers.

Some thrive on recognition, while others go quietly about their business with their award being hard work and the enjoyment they bring to others. One only has to view the beautiful and abundant flowers along Heppner's Main Street to know the Garden Club is made up of the second type of individuals. Without this hard working group, the dry summer and fall would not have been so easy to endure. These volunteers kept the flowers blooming and spirits lifted.

Members of the Garden Club shuddered when they heard Chamber was working on more planters, so they have a proposal. Heppner Garden Club will plant and seasonally maintain the planters on request IF:

- 1) Someone will be responsible for giving the planters a 4 gallon drink each day, and
- 2) Pinch off dry blooms regularly.

What an offer! This would be a wonderful opportunity for businesses, individuals, and organizations to say "thanks" to these diligent Garden Club members. So, before the next planting season arrives, why not step forward and agree to be a part of the "Adopt A Planter" program. This will help the planter committee chairman, Forrie Burkenbine, to know how many planters to plan for and where to locate them. Sign up for adoption now!

Hats off to our great volunteers! You do our town proud.

*See you Tuesday 24 at Chamber. Program will be Earl Bowden, Boeing Company Director of Aerospace facilities.

Bookworms change meeting date

By Justine Weatherford

Last fall the Bookworms planned that their December meeting would be on Tuesday afternoon, December 8, in the home of Marge Gardner, their new president. They have moved that pre-Christmas meeting to Tuesday, December 15, beginning at 1:30 p.m. in the Gardner home.

The regular November meeting was held in the home of Lorena Jones. Mary Goheen gave the afternoon's program telling of her extensive travel experience in Australia. She wore, and displayed some mementoes and circulated some excellent snapshots of favorite sights from all parts of Australia.

Soroptimist style show success

The Soroptimist held their annual Town and Country Holiday Style Show on Saturday, November 14, at the Catholic parish hall with 150 people attending.

The evening began with Jeff Wallace playing several musical selections on the piano. The style show began and hors d'oeuvres decorated the tables.

Joyce Hughes and a few of her aerobic dance students Pam Piper and Shawna Wilson, did some routines for the enjoyment of the group.

Wedding music sung by Angie Conover set the mood for a number of wedding dresses modeled dating from the 1920's to the 1980's.

Many local business had models presenting their merchandise and several businesses had Christmas displays showing their new items for the holidays.

Rhonda Wishart won the diamond gem stone donated by Peterson's Jewelers.

HHS to participate in Citizen Bee

Heppner High School students will have the opportunity to participate in a unique social academic competition which could lead to a scholarship and a study trip to Washington D.C. later this year. The school has registered to participate in the Close Up Foundation Citizen Bee.

The Citizen Bee is an academic competition that focuses on social studies and progresses through school, regional, and state events. Finalists compete for the national title in Washington in June 1988. Three Heppner students will advance to regional competitions with top students there going to the state finals.

State winners earn a trip to Washington where they will participate in the Foundation's government studies program as well as the competition. Winners of the national event receive college scholarships.

The Milken Family Foundation is the national sponsor of the Citizen Bee with additional support provided by RJR Nabisco, Inc. and Peat Marwick Main & Co.

Linda Dutcher, an educator at Heppner, will be coordinating the Citizen Bee at the school.
