Heppners Bryan Padberg (11) reaches for the ball in Saturday night's championship game at Lone. Russell Britt (15) looks on.

Heppner High Mustangs advanced to the championship game in Friday's basketball tournament held in Lone last Friday, with a 69-65 victory over the Riverside Pirates.

Bryan Padberg scored 27 points to lead the Mustangs. Brad Reisch paced the Pirates with 16 points and Mickey Maddox and Rob Rea each added 11 points for Riverside. Britt of Heppner and Devin both chipped in 15 and 12 points respectively.

This put Heppner against Catlin Gabel for the game Saturday. Lone was defeated by Catlin Gabel 69-65 and were put against Riverside for the consolation game.

On Saturday, the Mustangs had a 55-41 win over Catlin Gabel for the championship of the Morrow County Invitational. Padberg was again high point man with 20 points, eleven rebounds and seven steals along with four assists. Britt contributed 11 points and six assists.

Riverside won over Lone 74-48 for third place of the consolation match. Rob Rea of Riverside scored 21 points. Dustin Padberg of Lone pitched in 19 points with Ken Snider 10 points in the game. Snider put one in from the three-point line and Brian Ball fouled out.

Missionaries visit Christian Life Center

Rev. Jerry and Carol Robeson will conduct a "Strongman's His Name...What's His Game?" seminar at Christian Life Center, 535 W. Morgan starting Sunday December 13 at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. with services Monday through Wednesday nightly at 7 p.m. The theme of the seminar will be "Equipping Christians for Victorious Spiritual Warfare." Tobesons have been Assemblies of God Missionaries to Latin America for 20 years and have ministered among other countries in Nicaragua and Costa Rica. They specialize in open air crusades.

The Robesons have also maintained an active television and radio ministry. Jerry is the author of two books, "Faith in Eruption" and "Put the Coffin Back I'm Healed". Jerry is a soloist trumpeter on a number of LP records. Jerry and Carol have co-authored their latest book entitled "Strongman's His Name...What's His Game?". The book has been received enthusiastically by those who are looking for sound biblical instruction on spiritual warfare which in turn has triggered their seminar ministry.

The Robesons are no longer appointed missionaries but they still minister in crusades and seminars throughout the world. The seminar is open to the public without charge. There will, however, be a free will offering taken. For further information, please contact Pastor Doug Akeson or Pastor Tim Van Cleave at 676-5581.
