

Lone teams participate in Condon Christmas tourney

By Sean Warren

The lone Cardinals participated in their second tournament in two weeks at Condon Friday, December 11.

The lone boys team drew wheeler for their first game. The Cardinals played a diamond and one defense isolating senior Mark Craig and his deadly three point shot.

Coach Del laRue was quoted as saying "I'm not going to live and die by the three point shot, that's my plan."

The Cardinals were led by seniors Kevin Ball, Kenny Snider and junior Dustin Padberg. Ball scored 20 points and snagged 4 rebounds while Padberg scored 19 points with 9 rebounds. Snider also chipped in 10 points 4 rebounds and went a perfect 3-3 from the line.

Lone led the Falcons 32-25 at the break, thanks to a last second shot by junior Keith Morter.

Wheeler was the favored team in the contest but they never seemed to get on track while Lone played easily what coach LaRue called "the best game we've played in two years."

score at the half was 34-25 in favor of Arlington. Lone played a horrible third, scoring no points to Arlington's 15. Arlington was led by Shelly Webb who scored a game high 20 points along with 13 rebounds.

The lone boys team went on to play in the championship round against Condon who had beaten Arlington 62-37 late Friday.

The boys team played without their usual intensity in the championship game. Senior Mike Winslow of Condon scored 8 three pointers and ended up with 30 points to lead all scorers.

The boys team lost the game 77-51 but still took home the second place trophy. Ball and Padberg both received plaques for their outstanding play in the tournament and were placed on the All-Tournament team.

The lone girls team played the Wheeler Falcons on Saturday to determine who would take third and fourth place.

The leading scorer for the lady Cards was Mary Cupps, who scored 10 points and snagged 9 rebounds. The main reason that the Cardinals lost was because of early foul trouble.

No stats were available for the second day.

Fillies take first place tournament trophy

By Jason Dougherty

The Heppner Fillies captured the championship trophy in the Stanfield Winter Basketball Classic on Saturday, December 12, as they defeated Columbia-Burbank 41-30.

The two teams battled to a 16-16 tie at the half, but the Fillies, scoring 17 third quarter points, pulled away in the second half and coasted in for the win.

The Filly defense allowed only 5 points in the third quarter as Tami Lindsay, Libby Britt, and Sandi Turner took control inside. Lindsay also scored 6 points in the decisive third period.

The Fillies again had a balanced offensive scoring attack. Jennifer Currin led the way with 9 points. Jill Conklin and Nance Wright each added 8 points.

PUBLIC NOTICE TRUSTEE'S NOTICE OF SALE

Reference is made to that certain trust deed made by Matthew D. Greenup & Cheryl A. Greenup, husband and wife, as grantor, to Morrow County Abstract & Title Co., Inc., as trustee, in favor of First Interstate Bank of Oregon, N.A., fka First National Bank of Oregon, as beneficiary, dated January 10, 1984, recorded January 10, 1984, in the mortgage records of Morrow County, Oregon, in book No. M at page 22641, or as fee/file/instrument/microfilm/reception No (indicate which), covering the following described real property situated in said county and state, to-wit:

The West 100 feet of Lot 8 in Block 7, Jones' Addition to the City of Heppner, Morrow County, Oregon, as said Lot and Block are designated on the recorded plat of said Addition now on file in the office of the County Clerk of Morrow County State of Oregon. (380 S. Gilmore, Heppner, OR 97836)

Beneficial interest assigned to Housing Division, Department of Commerce, State of Oregon, nka Oregon Housing Agency, State of Oregon by instrument recorded January 10, 1984 as Book M, Page 22642, Morrow County Records.

Both the beneficiary and the trustee have elected to sell the said real property to satisfy the obligations secured by said trust deed and a notice of default has been recorded pursuant to Oregon Revised Statutes 86.735(3); the default for which the foreclosure is made is grantor's failure to pay when due the following sums: Monthly installments of $376.28 each, commencing with the payment due January 1, 1987 and continuing each month until this trust deed is reinstated or goes to Trustee's sale; plus accrued late charges of $119.24 as of October 28, 1987 and further late charges of $10.84 on each delinquent payment thereafter; plus all fees, costs and expenses associated with this foreclosure, all sums expended by beneficiary to protect the property or its interest therein during the pendency of this proceeding, evidence that taxes are paid as provided by the terms of the Trust Deed, and less the reserve account balance of $315.88.

By reason of said default the beneficiary has declared all sums owing on the obligation secured by said trust deed immediately due and payable, said sums being the following, to-wit:

The sum of $26,285.68 with interest thereon at the rate of 11.875% per annum from December 1, 1986, until paid; plus all fees, costs and expenses associated with this foreclosure, all sums expended by beneficiary to protect the property or its interest therein during the pendency of this proceeding, evidence that taxes are paid as provided by the terms of the Trust Deed, and less the reserve account balance of $315.88.

WHEREFORE, notice hereby is given that the undersigned trustee will on April 8, 1988, at the hour of 1:00 o'clock P.M., Pacific Daylight Time at front door-Morrow County Courthouse in the City of Heppner, County of Morrow, State of Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the interest in the said described real property which the grantor had or had power to convey at the time of the execution by him of the said trust deed, together with any interest which the grantor or his successors in interest acquired after the execution of said trust deed, to satisfy the foregoing obligations thereby secured and the costs and expenses of sale, including a reasonable charge by the trustee. Notice is further given that any person named in ORS 86.753 has the right, at any time prior to five days before the date last set for the sale, to have this foreclosure proceeding dismissed and the trust deed reinstated by payment to the beneficiary of the entire amount then due (other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred) and by curing any other default complained of herein that is curable of being cured by tendering the performance required under the obligation or trust deed, and in addition to paying said sums or tendering the performance necessary to cure the default, by paying all costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the obligation and trust deed, together with trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding the amounts provided by said ORS 86.753.

In construing this notice, the masculine gender includes the feminine and the neuter, the singular includes the plural, the word "grantor" includes any successor in interest to the grantor as well as any other person owing an obligation, the performance of which is secured by said trust deed, and the words "trustee" and "beneficiary" include their respective successors in interest, if any.

1 CARD OF THANKS

A special thanks to all who helped my wonderful kids, Dawn, Rick, and Anita, my dad and Vince, to put on the "Surprise Party", and believe me it was: When anyone would spend hard earned money to have that lovely picture made into a poster, and still admit they know her, "Believe me you know you are loved." I thought being "Nifty Fifty" was so great, I have now started on "Nifty Fifty part 2".
