

Cardinals host Eagles in Tuesday game

By Sean Warren

The lone Cardinals hosted the Spray Eagles Tuesday, December 15 in a rematch of their earlier win in overtime at Spray.

The Cardinals led 19-18 after the first quarter but the Eagles dominated the rest of the game. The Eagles were led by Wells who scored 15 points and Kintz who racked up 13 points.

The Cardinals played a disappointing second half scoring only 16 points to Sprays 29 points. The Cards could never get on track and didn't seem to have their usual intensity. Coach Del LaRue when asked about his teams performance replied "We just started standing around. We're having some problems and were going to have to go back to hard work." "We thought all we had to do to win was show up. I guess we'll have to go back to square one."

Junior Dustin Padberg scored 15 points and 6 rebounds to pace the Cardinals with senior Ken Snider following with 8 points. Lone's season fell to 2-4 with the loss to Spray.

The lone junior varsity played half a game with the Spray Junior Varsity. The game took on a double meaning for the lone JV's who lost their first meeting with Spray. The Cards were led by junior Sean Warren who scored 8 points and sophomore Jim Davison following close behind with 6 points of his own.

Lone played very well in the two quarters running their offense to near perfection. Lone won the game 24-16.
