Michael Case is subject of search Sunday night

Michael Case was the object of a search Sunday night when he was reported missing by his mother at around 7 p.m., according to police chief, Doug Rathbun.

The police were called and around 40 volunteers conducted a house search around Heppner for him.

He was found walking at around 2 a.m., approximately 12 miles up Willow Creek by Earl Struckmeier. The police were notified and picked him up.

Thursday night special event is Laura Pryor of Condon

Laura Pryor, Gilliam County Judge, will be sharing thought on "Getting Involved and Staying Sane" Thursday, January 14, 6:30 p.m. at the Elks Lodge as a part of the Town and Country Days being held next week.

Preceding Mrs. Pryor's presentation, a wine tasting event will be provided courtesy of the Wine Advisory Board and Bob Mueller, Manager of Boardman Farms. Mueller also serves on the Wine Advisory Board. Boardman Farms presently has over 750 acres of wine grapes growing in Morrow County, the largest grape acreage in Oregon.

Mrs. Pryor lives and works with her husband Earl on their wheat and cattle ranch north of Condon, where she also serves as Gilliam County Judge. She has been active in the Oregon Wheat Growers League for several years and was 1987 OWGL Marketing Chairman.

Laura has a professional background of promotion and economic development. She worked for the State of Oregon Economic Development Department in both the Business Development, Community Development and Ports programs. Her last assignment with the state was as Oregon Film Commissioner.

Laura Pryor

Prior to employment with the state she was a partner in a Graphic Design/Promotion studio in Portland. Hadfield Studio, provided promotional services for clients such as Georgia Pacific, Tektronix, Honeywell, John Hancock, Bank of America, Leopold Stevens, and Roseburg Lumber.

SWCD to hold annual meeting

The Morrow Soil and Water Conservation District is having their 16th annual meeting Friday, January 15, 1988 at the Heppner Elks at 10 a.m.

Kevin Campbell, commission member of the Oregon Soil and Water Conservation Commission and chairman of the Monument SWCD will be their featured speaker. Kevin will discuss how the Monument District, through Bonneville Power Administration Fisheries Division, obtained hundreds of thousands of dollars for Grant County.

There will also be a video tape entitled "Idaho's Weeds: A Growing Concern." This tape shows the economic importance of controlling weeds through the eyes of a sportsman. You don't have to be a farmer or rancher to benefit from the controlling of noxious weeds.

During the meeting an audit report will be given of the District.

The public is cordially invited and urged to attend the annual meeting. It promises to be very enjoyable and informative.

Chamber to install 1988 officers

The public is invited to attend the Heppner Chamber of Commerce Luncheon, 12 noon, Tuesday, January 12, at the Heppner Elks Lodge. Presentations, Business of the Year Award, and installation of 1988 Chamber officers will be on the agenda. Outgoing President George Koffler will preside while guests enjoy a ham luncheon ($4.00).

1988 officers to be installed are: Fred Lundin, Forrie Burkenbine, LoRayne Bowman, and Linda Gehrke. This chamber event has been scheduled to coincide with Town and Country Days-Community Involvement.

Chamber's announcement of Man and Woman of the Year will occur during the finale week, the Town and Country Banquet, Friday, January 15, 7 p.m. at the Elks. Tickets for that event may be purchased at the Chamber Office/Bev's Bookkeeping, Court House, County Extension Office, Murray's Drug, Bank of Eastern Oregon, and Morrow County Grain Growers.
