Campground reservations being accepted throughout Oregon

Reservation applications for the coming camping season in Oregon State Parks will be accepted beginning Monday, January 11, according to Steve Johansen, Operations Support manager.

While reservations are not required, they are suggested at the more popular campgrounds, particularly on summer holidays and weekends. Reservations are used only between Memorial Day and Labor Day weekends.

Johansen also said that a $1 camping fee increase is being proposed effective May 9 for all campsites.
The new daily summer camping rates will range from $7 to $10 depending on the type of site. The higher rate applies through October 2.

Reservation requests must be accompanied by a check or money order of $10. The $10 advance deposit includes a $3 non-refundable reservation fee with $7 applied to the first night's camping fee. The remaining camping fees will be payable upon arrival at the park.

Application forms are available at state park offices throughout the state, as well as at many Oregon State Police, Motor Vehicles Division and chamber of commerce offices. They are also available at State Parks headquarters at 525 Trade Street SE, Salem, OR 97310; telephone: 378-6305.

While reservation requests can be made in writing or in person by visiting the park desired, Johansen suggested that the mail option is preferred at this time of year.

The 13 parks where reservations may be made include: Beachside, Beverly Beach and South Beach, all in the Newport area; Cape Lookout, Tillamook; Detroit Lake, Detroit; Devil's Lake, Lincoln City; Fort Stevens, Astoria; Harris Beach, Brookings; Honeyman, Florence; Prineville Reservoir, Prineville;
Sunset Bay, Coos Bay; The Cove Palisades, Culver; and Willowa Lake, Joseph.

Winterize your houseplants

It's time to get houseplants ready for another winter indoors.
"Because growing conditions indoors are often poor, houseplants usually aren't too vigorous during the winter," said Ray McNeilan, Oregon State University Extension home gardening agent.

As a result, the water needs of houseplants are less in the winter season. It's best to let the potting soil dry slightly before watering again with most plants. Leave the soil moist after watering, not saturated.
And, let any excess water drain out the bottom of the pot.

Do not leave drain water standing in the dish or other container the plant pot sits in.

Fertilizer needs of houseplants are also less during winter months. It's safe to let houseplants go without fertilizer from late November through early April.

Remove seed pods and wilted flowers and leaves. Prune back long, straggly stems to within one-eighth inch of a leaf joint. Keep plants free of dust and pick off any insects that may be hiding on stems or foliage.

Some plants may need a transfer to larger pots to maintain maximum growth. Most vigorously growing indoor plants need repotting every year or two.

Check the plant root system to determine if it is potbound. Put one hand over the top of the soil, turn the pot upside down, tap the rim softly against the edge of a table to loosen the soil, and remove the old pot. A solid mass of roots with little or no soil visible indicates the plant is pot-bound.

When repotting, use a new container about two inches deeper and wider than the old one. This is usually one size larger in clay flower pots.

Snowmobile club gets start on activities

Four-Corners Snowmobile Club sponsored a trail ride on Sunday, January 3, 1988. Seventeen riders left Herren Meadows at 11 a.m. and covered approximately 70 miles during the day long ride.

The monthly club meeting was held Monday, January 4 at the Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative.
New business included plans for coming events. Another trail ride on Sunday, January 16 starting at 10 a.m. from Kelly Prairie and a playday on Sunday, February 7 at Kelly Prairie were announced.

Del Moyer, president of the club, noted that the Four-Corners Snowmobile Club will be a participant in the American Cancer Society's fund drive during the month of February. Del indicated that the club would have a trail ride on Sunday, February 22, with riders taking pledges for the American Cancer Society.

Terrie Cutsforth, secretary of the club, extended a welcome to the public for the coming events sponsored by the club. She noted "the club is interested in charitable activities and safe winter fun. We hope everyone will join us at our sponsored activities."

Open House to show new computer

An open house will be held at the Umatilla, Morrow, Gilliam County Farmers Home Administration office on Tuesday, January 12, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, to demonstrate the new computer system, announced FmHA County Supervisor, Dave, R. Fitzsimmons.

According to Farmers Home Administration State Director David T.
Chen, the open house is part of a statewide open house to recognize the completion of the three-year automation project; one of the largest projects of its kind in the country. FmHA has installed 59 computer terminals on 23 systems in Oregon and over 6,000 nationally, Chen said.

"We think this computer system is going to be a big help to our borrowers, especially family farmers," Fitzsimmons said. "Once we plug basic numbers into the machine, we can help determine which management decisions will be the most beneficial. We'll be able to project annual cash-flow figures quickly and accurately."

"In addition, we can go directly into the FmHA mainframe computer in Kansas City," Fitzsimmons said.
"We expect this equipment will also help us to process applications quicker than we have in the past." The FmHA office is located at 1229 SE Third, Suite A., Pendleton, OR in the Agricultural Services building.

Margo Sherer
Morrow County Tax Collector

Five year olds need Social Security number

Did you know that on Federal tax returns filed in 1988 and after, you have to list a Social Security number for any person age 5 or above who you wish to claim as a dependent?

The provision requiring Social Security numbers for dependents was contained in the Tax Reform Act of 1986. The purpose is to reduce tax evasion in cases where parents filing separate returns both claim a dependent for tax purposes or in cases where taxpayers claim non-existent dependents. This results in a substantial loss of revenue at the expense of millions of other taxpayers.

About two-thirds of America's young people already have Social Security cards with lifetime numbers. They may have gotten them for bank accounts, part-time jobs, driver's licenses, college entrance examinations, or other purposes.

Because almost all employment and self-employment are now covered by Social Security, just about every American will eventually need a number. All reported earnings are recorded on an individual's earnings record under his or her name using that number. Entitlement to and the amount of any future disability, survivors, and retirement benefits—as well as entitlement to Medicare—will depend on the completeness and accuracy of that record.

In a normal year, Social Security issues about 6 million original and 6 million replacement cards. Under the new law, we expect to issue and additional 9 million new cards and 3 million replacement cards between now and April 15, 1988—in effect, doubling our normal workload.

In general, a person can apply for a Social Security number at any Social Security office by mail or in person. Evidence of date of birth, U.S. citizenship or lawful alien status, and identity must be provided. Of course, there is no charge for either a new or replacement Social Security card.

To permit parents to comply with the new law as easily as possible, we are seeking the cooperation of schools, local organizations, businesses, and other government agencies in informing parents about the law's requirements. In many localities, schools are assisting in getting the word out by relaying information and, in some cases, supplying Social Security number applications to parents. In many cases, school records can provide the information needed by parents to apply for the child's number. Local organizations, businesses, other agencies, tax preparers, and others are including brief messages in their newsletters, supplying information in payroll stuffers, or informing clients during interviews or through mailings.

If you want more information or need assistance in applying for a Social Security number, please contact your local Social Security office.
The telephone number can be found in your phone directory under "Social Security Administration" or "U.S. Government." Remember, don't wait until the last minute; apply now. If you wait until March or April of this year, it may be too late!

I will give you rest...

Presented by: South Morrow County Ministerial Association Father Tony Bullman, All Saints Episcopal Church.

Last month I asked the question who can come, and why should I come?
This month I have another question-What happens if I come? The answer to that question is "I will give you rest... You will find rest for your souls".
In our restless society there are few promises more meaningful. Travel agencies offer rest only when we get away from it all. Entertainment offers escape from our true situation. The real and important world rather is to begin with the world inside and not the world outside. I may change my outside world completely, my friends, my work, my home. But if I have no peace and rest inside, in my heart, the change alters very little. On the other hand, if my mind and heart are at rest, I have something of immeasurable value which nothing can remove.

This is exactly what Jesus offers through his death for our sins. On the cross He took our place and bore our guilt and punishment. At first, Simon Peter could not understand why Jesus had to die. But later, he put it like this "Christ died for our sins once and for all. He, the just, suffered for the unjust to bring us to God" (1 Peter 3:18). What does this mean? The essence of sin is that we get our own way, not God's and therefore, inevitably, we find ourselves separated from Him. That is why God is unreal in our experience. Think of this in terms of two banks on either side of a river. By going our own way and not God's we are on one bank, and God on the other. Now if traffic is to flow from one side to the other, we need a bridge, which by definition, touches both sides. In the history of the world there has been only one bridge which is both man and God, and that is Jesus Christ. Moreover, He could effectively become that bridge for us, only by taking upon Himself the problem which caused the separation for our sins...to bring us to God. For it is through the cross that we can have peace with God, with the peace of God in our hearts. The barrier of sin was dealt with once and for all when Jesus died. And we receive the benefits of His death when we receive Him into our lives. May the Lord Jesus bless you as you serve Him.
