

Mustangs barely miss win over Stanfield

Barney Lindsay gets a foul called on him as he trips on a Stanfield player in Saturday night's game at Heppner.

By Jason Dougherty
Two of the top teams in the CBC conference met last Saturday, January 16.
The Heppner Mustangs clashed for the second time with the Stanfield Tigers only to come up two baskets short for the win.
The first half went very fast as the Mustangs put the pressure on the Tigers. The Tigers seemed to hold their own against the tough Mustang press. The half ended as quick moves by the Mustangs put the score at 28-27, in favor of Heppner.
Coming out in the second half the Mustangs continued to pressure the ball trying to cause a Tiger turnover. The Mustangs out scored the Tigers in the third quarter 24 to 17 leaving the score at 52-44, Heppner.

The Tigers caught up quickly in the fourth quarter and the score was within two points until the last seconds of the game. A Tiger turnover left the Mustangs with the ball and a chance to tie, but with a little bad luck the Tigers got the ball back and scored putting them ahead of the Mustangs by four points.
The Stanfield Tigers defeated the Mustangs 70-66.
Bryan Padberg paced the Mustangs with 22 points and 6 rebounds.

Fillies win one lose won in weekend games

Weston-McEwen
By Jason Dougherty
The Heppner Fillies lost their first league game to the Weston-McEwen Tiger Scots last Friday, January 15.
The first half went slow for both teams as turnovers went both ways and scoring was cold. The Fillies got into foul trouble before the half as Sandi Turner and Tami Lindsay both had 3, and Jennifer Currin had 2.
The second half went Weston-McEwens way, as their fast breaking and two 3-point goals hurt the Fillies.
The Fillies lost two of their starters to fouls in the second half, both Sandi Turner and Jennifer Currin. This helped Weston-McEwen defeat the Fillies 48-30.

Heppner holds off Weston-McEwen

By Jason Dougherty
The Heppner Mustangs won their opening league game by defeating the Weston-McEwen Tiger Scots 60-48 on Friday, January 15.
The Mustangs had a rough first half as their shots weren't falling and rebounding seemed to be to the Tiger-Scots advantage.

The Mustangs came out in the second half concentrating on slowing the game down and working through their offense, but not letting off on their defensive pressure. This worked for the Mustangs as their shots began falling and their defense caused the Tiger-Scots to make turnovers.
The Tiger-Scots ended the game with 36 turnovers helping the Mustangs on to a win. Bryan Padberg had 22 points while forward Dick Devin chipped in 21 points.
The game ended Heppner 60, Weston-McEwen 48.
