The St. Patrick's Day committee met Thursday, January 28, at the Extension conference room. A good turnout was on hand to discuss plans for the coming celebration.

A new item on the calendar this year is an auction to be chaired by Pat Sweeney. This is the first time this has been attempted but it is expected to be very successful. The old-fashioned bath tubs from the hotel are to be some of the items to be auctioned. Donations for the auction will be gladly accepted. Contact Pat Sweeney.

Historical Society to bury capsule

By Delpha Jones

At the time the work was completed on the Court House, and the parking area, the Morrow County Historical Society made plans to bury a capsule with interesting data in it. The capsule has been completed and a bronze plaque was donated by the contractors. February 24 has been the date chosen to bury the capsule, and a short program is planned by the society. At 1:30 p.m. a group of Heppner 6th graders will sing. There will be a prayer, and an opening and the presentation of the flag. At this time there will be the dedication of the Hitching Post recently moved to the Courthouse lawn from the home of Jim Hager, who had donated it to the society. Following this short presentation, there will be cookies and coffee served in the Courthouse. A bronze plaque has been ordered for the hitching post and will be attached as soon as it arrives. The public is most cordially invited to attend this presentation.
