JESUS IS THE ONLY WAY

If you and I wish to receive Jesus Christ as our Savior we must realize that there is a condition to coming to Him. Jesus said "Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me." (Matthew 11:28). When Jesus speaks these words He is using a farming picture in which two animals (usually oxen) were yoked together for the purpose of some task such as plowing a field. The yoke would consist of a wooden frame which held the two animals together and kept them moving in the same direction. If then, we are to come to Jesus we must be willing from now onwards to go with Him. This is essential in all true conversions. Conversion involves a change of direction. Instead of going my own way and doing my own thing I turn around and start going with Jesus Christ. But unless I am willing to let Him guide and direct my life as He wants, I cannot know the peace and rest that he offers. The reason is simple. It is Jesus who gives me peace. It is Jesus who gives me rest - not religion, not trying hard. Only Jesus can do that. If I am to know His rest in my heart and His direction in my life therefore, I must come to Him and go with Him. He must have control and authority in my life. "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me" and if that seems to costly, remember that His yoke is easy and His burden light. He will give us a degree of freedom that we can find nowhere else. A freedom to live the best possible life that God has planned for us. Jesus first of all invites us to come. He says "Come to me all who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest, but the condition is take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart and the result of your coming is "You will find rest for your soul for my yoke is easy and my burden is light." May the Lord Jesus bless you each and every day as you serve Him.

Mime visits Ione school with Artist in Education program

Craig McIntosh

Ione school, kindergarten through sixth grades were recently treated to an Artist in Education Program sponsored by the Eastern Oregon Regional Arts Council. Two-thirds of the cost is paid by the school and 1/3 by the Arts Council.

Craig McIntosh, Boardman, was the artist and his specialty is mime, acting and improvisational activities. Craig spent two weeks with the children doing improvisational activities, teaching the children to work together and interact in a creative way. He worked with the children every day, six sessions a day for two weeks. The end result was five pieces of original work and one he chose for the kids to perform at the end of the two week period. Fourteen actors and actresses were chosen from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades to participate.

The Arts Council sponsors programs from several different areas, such as sculpting, painting, mime and others for children in outlying areas to benefit from. The programs are varied each year so they avoid repetition. The council serves ten counties in Eastern Oregon.

Craig's wife, Debra, works for the Educational Service District. Her name may be familiar to people here, as she was the Morrow County Psychologist two years ago.

Craig is a "house husband" which enables him to participate in this program. He says "he enjoys working with the children and watching their creativity at work."

Jocelyn and Mark Jones of Ione were his host family for the two weeks.

Senior Citizen News

--Suzanne Jepsen recently resigned from the Heppner Senior Citizens Board of Directors. She was the last original member of the board having served approximately eight years plus serving as treasurer. At the February 17 board meeting, Lil Boyce was voted in to fill the vacancy as the new treasurer.

--Jane Rawlins president of the Senior Board, said over $300 had been raised in February for the Hotel project, $100 from the Go for It table at the senior meal site, $125 from the Valentine's food sale and $137 from the Ione pancake supper and card party. Thanks everyone for your support.

--The seniors served breakfast at the Elks club Sunday, February 21 after the Elks annual. Saturday of the St. Patrick's celebration they will serve breakfast at the 4-H Annex. All of the fund raising projects are for the Hotel project. A quilt was donated by Mary Powers. Tickets are on sale for a chance at the quilt. The drawing will be St. Pats weekend.

--Jane reported that 966 hours were logged by senior citizens working on the demolition work at the hotel. Many weeks of work were done before the two big weekends in which community volunteers helped to complete the project. Many thanks to those who worked.

--It was noted that memorials are one way to help benefit the Senior Citizen project plus keeping the money at home to benefit the local community. This is a non-profit organization and a tax receipt is given to contributors.

4-H Garden club to begin

When the seed catalogs arrive, and the sun begins to shine, thoughts turn to gardening.

For the first time in many years 4-H will have a gardening club in Heppner. Ann Spicer and Bill Kuhn have volunteered to work with kids who want to garden. They will be getting a club together soon to make plans for the gardening season.

Those interested should contact either the Extension Office 676-9642 or Spicer/Kuhn at 676-9141 (days) or 676-5033 evenings.
