Krazy Krafters

By Melissa Pettyjohn, reporter

In the group Krazy Krafters, the kids are Taryn Dick, Renee Devin, Andrea Miles, Jessica Sumner, Melissa Pettyjohn, Sheryl Conklin, Alina Binschus and Alisha Marlatt. We made an earring holder with a hoop, ribbon and lace. We glued with a glue gun and it was probably our first time. Now we are staining wooden hearts and we will put a needle in a pencil and dip the end in paint and put dots on the hearts. When it is finished it will be a necklace holder and it will have nails in it for the necklaces. Our next meeting will be Saturday, at 1 p.m. at Benji Pearson's house. She is the leader.

Three from championship Fillies team play at college

By Jason Dougherty

Three of the starters for the 1986 state A Heppner basketball girls championship team, have continued their basketball careers on into college.

Dana Reid went on to play basketball for the Blue Mountain Timberwolves. She has played college ball for the last two years and is currently a sophomore at Blue Mountain Community College and is the leading scorer for the Timberwolves. Reid is majoring in business and has enjoyed playing in college competition.

Missy Turner, a sophomore at Mt. Hood Community College has been playing for the last two years and has become the Mt. Hood Saints starting point guard. Turner has had a lot of influence with the Saints team and has shown them that height isn't everything but speed can mean alot. Turner leads the Saints in assists and is fourth in scoring. She hopes to go on to a four-year college and continue her basketball career. Missy is majoring in elementary education and has a minor in psychology.

Missy Eubanks a 1987 graduate is now a freshman at George Fox College. As a freshman, Eubanks is seeing a lot of action as she has continued to play a guard in college basketball. Eubanks is scoring more and more all the time and is making a name for herself on the Lady Bruins team. Eubanks plays in the West Division of the NAIA. This is a tough league for four year colleges.

Missy is majoring in business and will play three more years at George Fox for the Lady Bruins.

Dana Reid, Missy Turner and Missy Eubanks have used their skills learned under coach Mike Royer to help them continue their basketball careers in college and compete well.

Portugal and Spain viewed by Bergstroms

A birds-eye-view of Portugal and Spain was presented by Donna Bergstrom at the Topic Club meeting on February 24 at the home of Blanche Ransom with Shirley McNary as hostess. Donna said that they were most cordially received in Portugal. Cost of lodging and food was relatively inexpensive. Probably the most expensive thing on their trip was the cost of hiring a car. The beautiful old Moorish style buildings left a lasting impression of its former grandeur. One of the most noticeable differences was the contrasts between Portugal and Spain. Portugal is a poor and underdeveloped country whereas Spain is quite modern. Roland said that he was very impressed with the beautiful fields in Spain and their modern equipment. Portugal is more primitive and is still using donkeys as power for its implements. Small cars were a necessity because the streets were very narrow and many were made of cobblestone which also made them difficult to walk on. However, all in all, the trip was a very enjoyable one.
