Fiber Arts classes offered Spring term

BMCC is offering two basketry workshops and a credit class in spinning this spring.

The splint-woven basket workshop will be held Saturday, April 30, and must be pre-registered for by April 11 at the latest. Wicker-weave basketry will be taught Saturday May 14; the deadline for registration is April 25. Pre-registration is mandatory because supplies must be ordered.

Students can earn two hours Art credit by taking Spinning I beginning Tuesday, March 29, for eleven weeks. No experience or equipment is required, but the class will offer instruction to both beginning spinners and those with some experience.

Call coordinator Marsha Sweek at 676-5039 for information and lists of supplies. Please pre-register.

Heppner Daycare put on their St. Patrick's hats during the lunch hour to get into the spirit of St. Pat's. This youngster didn't have his own so he borrowed Paula's hat.

4-H video needs returned to Extension Office

We have loaned out "Basic Sewing" video to someone—we are now having many requests for the use of the video, as 4-H clubs begin sewing.

Please—if you are the one who borrowed "Basic Sewing" return the tape as soon as possible.

Mail to OSU Extension Service,

Box 397, Heppner, OR. 97836 if you cannot bring it to the office.

Neighborhood Council

Cheese distribution will be March 30 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Neighborhood Center (178 W. Willow). Proof of residence is required.
