--Holly Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday for the regular meeting with the NG Luella Taylor in the chair. Preceding the meeting a potluck dinner was enjoyed jointly with the Oddfellows, and the Rebekahs enjoyed a birthday exchange. A lovely St. Patrick's birthday cake was served, decorated with Shamrocks and Leprechauns. The group recommended Leila Palmer as the DDP and Delpha Jones and Virginia Peck as delegates to the Assembly in May in Salem. Plans were made to make pop corn balls to be sold at the St. Patrick's celebration in Heppner.

Lexington Grange met on Monday evening the 21st for the regular meeting. Honored guests were introduced and escorted to the Master's station; Willard French, Master of Willows Grange, and William Alford, Master of Greenfield Grange and Richard Hartwig from Estacada, of Redland Grange. Reports were heard from the chairman of the committees. The group was reminded of the State Officers conference to be held at Willows Grange Hall March 30 with a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. followed by an evening of instruction.

--Venice Hendrickson, of Pendleton has been visiting her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom.

--Dorothy Burcham had her grandsons, Kenneth and David Burcham visiting her during spring vacation from their home in Pendleton. Mike and Lyn Burcham also visited during the week.

--Lois Allyn and Dorothy Burcham were recent Portland callers where they visited Lois's mother and Dorothy visited relatives.

--Cecil and Delpha Jones and Berl and Margeret Akers attended the funeral services of Joe DuPuis in Pendleton on Monday. Joe was a Master of the Umatilla County Pomona and visited many times with the granges in Morrow County.

--Charlene Whitney and Max Akers of Portland visited with her brother Kenneth and her parents the Cecil Jones's over the weekend. They also attended a birthday party honoring Stuart Smith of Hermiston on Saturday.

--Earl Miller has returned to Lexington after several weeks at the home of his mother in Seaview, WA where he has been recuperating from back surgery.

--Bill and Rena Marquardt visited Monday at the home of Linda and Doug Marquardt, in College Place. Also visiting was another son, Rick and Charity Marquardt from Connel, Washington.

--Gerry and Sue Messenger and grandson Andrew from Portland were recent callers at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger Sr.

--The Lexington Church group enjoyed a bountiful potluck dinner on Sunday with a good turn out.

--Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller and children are spending some time in Madras where he is employed.

--Jana Marquardt is attending a Flight School in Richland Washington.

--Betty Marquardt and daughter Carlita were recent Portland callers.

--Cecil and Delpha Jones motored to Baker on Wednesday where they attended Memorial Services for her uncle David Wesley Merritt, 89, of that city. His wife Grace preceded him in death 17 days earlier. Also attending the service was Kenneth Jones and Connie Eng. The Jones's were dinner guests of Vic and Judy Groshens. They report that their son Scott who recently underwent major surgery in Bend is again recuperating at his home there.

--The last of the series of card parties sponsored by Holly Rebekah Lodge will be Saturday. Refreshments will be served and prizes given.

--Rev. Stuart Dick and family have moved to Lexington and are living in the former Baker trailer.

--The Lawrence Schoonover family were Portland callers, attending the races with the Morrow County Queen and Court, where Queen Missy presented a blanket to the 5th race winner. Also attending from Lexington was Pat Wright.

In the Service

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Wayne E. Gale, son of Duane E. and Arduth K. Gale of Route 2, Irrigon, recently departed for a six month deployment to the Mediterranean Sea aboard the aircraft carrier USS Dwight D. Eisenhower, homeported in Norfolk, VA.

The ship is relieving the USS Coral Sea. This cruise is the first major deployment for the USS Eisenhower since returning to the Atlantic Fleet following an 18-month overhaul. Gale joined the Navy in May 1984.

Discipline is topic for Homebuddies
