

St. Pat's week-end noted as a "Good Time"

St. Patrick's Day 1988 was named a great success by the St. Patrick's Day committee at its post-celebration meeting held last week. "From all that I've heard, everyone had a real good time," said Jim Farley.

The committee reviewed all the events and discussed ways to improve on the celebration next year. Officers elected for 1989 are chairman, David Sykes; treasurer, George Koffler; auction, Pat Sweeney; parade, Bob Kahl; buttons and promotions, Diana Ball; radio program, Jim Farley.

Next year's celebration will be held on March 17, 18 and 19, 1989.
