

Jr. Bowlers trophies awarded

The Junior bowlers have finished their bowling season. League trophies were awarded Friday, April 15.

First place team for the Friday League was Jim Kindle, John Kindle, and Brody Struckmeier.

High game for boys was awarded to John Kindle, bowling a 209.

High series for boys was Travis Hughes with a 508 for three games.

High game for girls was Christy Corwin with a 167.

High series for girls was Chrissy Schultz with a 432 for three games.

First place team for the Thursday league was Adam Doherty, Josh Coiner and Derek Gunderson.

High game for boys was Jerid Ployhar with a 163.

High series for boys was Jeff Botelehr with a 280 for two games.

High game for girls was Alissa Marlatt with a 119.

High series for girls was Kara Anotegui with a 237 for two games.

All trophies were purchased by the Sam Worley Memorial Trophy Fund for the Junior bowlers.

The Sam Worley Memorial Trophy for special achievement was awarded to Matt Keerseemaker.

Anyone wishing to make contributions to the trophy fund may do so at First Interstate Bank.

Matt Keerseemaker

Lexington den Bugs meet

Lexington Garden Bugs met for the regular meeting at the home of Dorothy Burcham. Those present were, Phylis Anderson, Lois Allen, Bertha Sager, Bertha Gates, Marie Steagall, Kathy Tellechea, Delta Huber, Marj Ball, Luella Taylor and the hostess.

Plans were discussed for the summer projects, such as upkeep of the park, and the clean up of Lexington through April and May. An interesting lesson was given by Dorothy Burcham on butterflies and hummingbirds. The door prize was won by Bertha Gates. The next meeting is scheduled at the home of Marj Ball.

Professor Bear visits lone first grade

(L to R) Robert Hunt, Nova Rietmann, Amber Peck and Jamie Perez help Professor Bear read at the lone Elementary School.

Mildred Baker, Boardman brought her collection of teddy bears to visit Betty Rietmann's first grade class in lone. Mrs. Baker teaches at Sam Boardman Elementary School and one of her hobbies is collecting and making various kinds of teddy bears.

The students were particularly interested in Professor Bear who wears glasses and probably reads books.

The first grade is observing B.E.A.R. (Be Eager About Reading) month. Their teddy bears have visited school regularly to help with the reading contest in progress at this time.

Mrs. Baker showed the class different fabrics and designs she uses in making her bears. She also helped the students make teddy bear pictures using some of her fabric.

Final touches being put on school play

This week the Heppner High School Drama Club cast and production crew are putting final touches on their full-length play "The Hobbit" to be shown at 8 p.m. on April 28 and 30 in the school cafeteria. On April 29 a 12:45 matinee will be given to elementary school students. Audiences of all ages can expect scenes of imaginative, humorous, thought provoking entertainment from this stage version of a modern classic fantasy book by J.R. Tolkien.

The leading Hobbits, Bilbo Baggins played by Lana Schmidt and Gandolf, by Kevin Tucker lead other Hobbits of Middle-earth in an attempt to recover an important treasure. The roles of the Dwarves are taken by Brent Temple, Yvette Cowett, Melissa McCurry, Jon Kindle, Mickie Cameron, Benji Pearson, Jennifer Tanner, Will Welborn and Val Hager who also plays Smaug. Other cast members include Thorin (J.J. Shaw), Essie (Sheri Warnock), Bert (Kim Sager), Tom (Helene Porsmyr), and grocery boy (Michelle Beck). Charming as the Elfen Queen and Elf guards are Sandi Turner, Barney Lindsay and Ryan Munkers.

Also working with Director Linda Dutcher is the backstage crew. Bryan Brazell is in charge of sets and lighting and Terri Gentry is supervising make-up. During intermission of the evening performances, the National Honor Society will serve pie and coffee.

Admission is $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students or $6 for a family.

out of the 25 teams after winning third and second in their relays.

The Heppner track teams will be participating this Saturday, April 23 in the Hermiston-Kiawanis meet in Umatilla, starting at 11 a.m.

Photo by Joyce Hughes
Back row left to right: Steve Hoffman, Crissy Schultz, Christy Corwin, Jim Kindle. Front row: Adam Dougherty and Travis Hughes.

Thinclads take second

Bryan Padberg led the Mustangs to second place at the 25-team Cherry Festival, last Friday, April 15, hosted by Wahonka of The Dalles.

Padberg won the 1,500 run with a time of 4:09.6 and also won the 3,000 meter run with a time of 9:05.0.

Gene Lancaster won first in the shot put with a throw of 47.7 feet to help the Mustangs to second place.

The Heppner girls placed seventh

MORROW COUNTY GRAIN GROWERS

Your Local Supplier of Petroleum Products

For Residential - Commercial - Agricultural

Chevron - Cenex - Mobil

Motor Oils
Gear Lube
Grease
Kerosene
Antifreeze

Hydraulic Fluids
Chain Bar Oil
Solvents
White Gas
Drip-Oils

24 Hour - Commercial - Residential System

Bulk deliveries of:

Regular - Unleaded - Premium Unleaded Gas
1 Diesel (Stove Oil) & # 2 Diesel

Retail Outlets Located in Lexington & Ione

Serving you with Petroleum Tank Salesmen Ed Baker, Sonny Biddle, and Stan Cox.

Our Equipment includes;

1 - 9600 Gal Tank Transport
1 - 2900 Gal Delivery Truck
1 - 2700 Gal Delivery Truck

Radio equipped and ready to serve your needs with reliable service!

Morrow County Grain Growers INC.
Phone 989-8221 1-800-452-7396 P.O. Box 367
LEXINGTON, OREGON 97839

Peterson's Jewellers
Heppner 676-9200

Family barbecue at W.C.C.C.

There will be a family barbecue and play day at Willow Creek Country Club on Sunday, April 24 at 4 p.m.

Hosts for the afternoon are: Eldon and Barbara Gilbert, chairpersons, Ed and Beverly Gunderson, Dave and Trish Gunderson, George and Karla Waterland, Rick and Susan Johnston, Earl and Carol Norris.

Each family will bring their own meat to barbecue. Those whose names begin with A through I bring salad; J through Z bring desert.

McLaughlin receives scholarship

Chris McLaughlin, sophomore at Oregon State University in Construction Engineering Management is the recipient of one of the AGC (Associated General Contractors of America) Education and Research Foundation 1988 undergraduate scholarships. The award is in the amount of $3000.

He was notified by letter in March of this award.

Chris is a member of the student chapter of AGC at OSU.

His parents are Bob and Betty McLaughlin of Heppner.

Guess Who Is 25 Again This Year

Happy Birthday Dave
From All Of Us!!!

There's more to buying a diamond than meets her eye.

There's a special feeling of pride and satisfaction when you present the gift of a diamond. It's more than just the sparkle, and she knows it. That's why you should see your American Gem Society jeweler for the most personal and professional attention in selecting diamonds and precious gems. The AGS store owner is always at your service offering only the finest in quality and value. After all, it's a lifetime investment. You wouldn't settle for less.

Peterson's Jewellers
Heppner 676-9200