

Last meeting scheduled for Homebuddies

A favorite recipe exchange is taking place at the Homebuddies' meeting, Tuesday, May 3 at the Heppner Methodist Church. This will be the last meeting until fall. Homebuddies is a chance for young mothers to meet and discuss mutual interests.

Children are welcome as a nursery is provided.

For more information, call Kay Proctor at 676-9827.

Ducks Unlimited plan dinner auction

Duck's Unlimited, the world's largest water fowl conservation organization is sponsoring a "Dinner-Auction" at the Heppner Elks Club, June 11.

Jeff Maben, chairman of the Heppner Chapter, has announced that the auction prizes will be on display at: Shoe Box, Peterson's Jewelers, Gardner's Men's Wear, Coast to Coast, and Pettyjohn's Builders Supply.

Dinner ticket chairman, Norm Zeller, has tickets available at Pettyjohn's Builders and Kate's Pizza. Tickets may also be obtained from Jeff Maben, 676-5269; Allen Burkenbine 676-5038; Gary Clark 676-5222; Bob Krein 676-9956; or Norm Zeller 676-5206.

The dinner tickets are $10 per person. (prime rib, wine is included), with the option of DU membership for $20 per person. The dinner starts at 7 p.m. with the raffle and auction following.

The Heppner Chapter and Coast to Coast are sponsoring a special raffle for DU members who pay by June 11. The raffle item is a new Remington 870 pump, 30 inch barrel, full choke shotgun. The gun is on display at Coast to Coast.

Additional information will follow.

UMW plans get underway

The United Methodist Women held their regular meeting on Wednesday, April 13. President Jenny Bingham presided.

The upcoming yard sale, graduating seniors, funeral dinner and summer bible camp scholarships were discussed. Yard sale items are accumulating and anything donated should be clean, usable, repaired and priced. It will be held May 14, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Dessert and tea or coffee will be sold in the church basement.

UMW will host a special fellowship hour after church May 22 in honor of the graduating seniors. It was voted to provide five $50 scholarships for campers attending summer church camp.

The next meeting will be held May 11, 7:30 p.m. in the church basement.

Plans underway for Ione 4th of July

From the parade in the morning to the barbecued chicken dinner, fireworks and the street dance after dark, the Fourth of July Celebration in Ione is sure to be one you won't want to miss.

The parade begins at 11 a.m. and you are welcome to get involved with a float, horses, music, marchers, costumes or what ever you choose. If you would like to participate, please call or drop a note to help with the organization. Of course, if you decide at the last minute to be in the parade, don't worry, you are welcome. Contact Linda Tullis 422-7248 or 422-7122 for more information.

Marvin scores in Int'l Arts competition

Lance Marvin, 12, of Heppner, has been named a winner in the 1988 International Creative Arts Festival, sponsored by the Center on Deafness, Des Plaines, Illinois.

Marvin, a student at Heppner Junior High School, received 1st place in Art (painting) in the competition, which encourages achievement by hearing impaired children, adolescents and young adults in the visual, literary and performing arts. This year's competition drew more than 350 entries from across the United States and Canada, and from as far as Australia.

First-place winners are invited to attend the two-day Festival as guests of the Center on Deafness, to be held April 29-May 1 at the Center, which is located in northwest suburban Chicago, the event includes seminars and workshops with deaf adults renowned for their accomplishments in the arts.

Still another highlight of the Festival will be a full scale musical performance of "Fiddler on the Roof," presented in sign and voice by the Center's Traveling Hands Theatrical Troupe.

The International Creative Arts Festival is a non-profit venture funded solely by donations from corporations, foundations, organizations and individuals. Tax deductible contributions to help cover the costs of the Festival may be sent to Center on Deafness, 10100 Dee Road, Des Plaines, IL 60016.

The Center on Deafness was founded in 1973 and provides a range of landmark arts and mental health programs for hearing impaired children and adults.

Episcopal church hosts "Italian Night" dinner

A special evening is being planned by the Episcopal Church, to be held May 6 from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. This will be an "Italian Night" dinner. by reservation only, to include a choice of spaghetti, lasagna or fettuccine.

For reservations, call Gail at 676-9782 or Suzanne at 676-9850.

Baker selected as contributing editor

Robin Baker, Ione, has been selected as a Field Editor for Northwest Living. The editor has scheduled her article on Oregon Trail Souvenirs and Tours for publication in the July/August 1988 issue.

Robin just recently started writing "Ione Insights" for the Gazette Times.

Robin and Marie Boor, operate the Oregon Trail Information Center in Ione.

Notice

Heppner Booster Club will be meeting at Kate's Pizza on Monday, May 2, 7:30 p.m. to discuss upcoming Reno Night plans.

Members are encouraged to attend to help plan this function. This is the largest money making project of the year for booster club and a lot of help is needed to make this project work.

Woodlands Assoc. meeting is May 13

The Morrow County Private Woodlands Association will be meeting Friday, May 13 at the Elks Club in Heppner. The evening will begin with a social hour at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m., including prime rib, salad bar, and all the trimmings for $7.95.

The featured speaker for the evening will be Ed Calame from the U.

S. Forest Service office in Pendleton, who will show some slides of research findings on the Umatilla Barometer Watershed Study-one of the few still maintained by the Forest Service.

Anyone interested in forestry is invited to attend. Please pre-register for the dinner by May 9 at the Morrow County Extension Office in Heppner.

The Hobbit airs April 28

These members of the cast of "The Hobbit" will be exhibiting their talents at the play to be shown on April 28 and 30 at 8 p.m. at the high school cafeteria. Be sure to attend and enjoy an evening of good entertainment.

Soroptimist visitors

Phyllis Payne and Bob Brigg's fifth grade classes performed skits and sang songs Thursday, April 21, at the Soroptimist noon luncheon. There theme was "Just Say No" to drugs and alcohol. Pictured above are (Left) Kyle Moses and Chad Skroch demonstrating a skit on what alcohol does to your mind and body. Frogs can't fly and neither should drunk birds, nor should we drink and drive.

Following their demonstration Under Sheriff Verlin Denton gave a talk on the recent drug busts and how drugs affect us.

TURN ON THE WATER

WITH M.C.G.G. IRRIGATION SYSTEMS

PLUMBING
SUPPLIES

WELL TRUCK

WINDMILL SERVICE
IRRIGATION
SUPPLIES

SPRINKLER IRRIGATION

PUMP
INSTALLATION
& SERVICE

Morrow County Grain Growers, Inc.

350 Main Street Lexington, Oregon 97839
Phone 989-8221 1-800-452-7396

THINGS MONEY CAN'T BUY

Love
Happiness
The Loyalty of a Fine Dog

THINGS IT CAN

- Bigger Houses
- Sports Cars
- Spring Wardrobes
- Trips Abroad
- Fall Wardrobes
- Higher Educations
- Speedboats
- Redwood Decks
- Diamonds
- Bedroom Sets
- Backyard Pools
- Personal Computers
- Fur Coats
- Airplanes
- Race Horses
- Rowing Machines
- Scuba Gear
- Sailboats
- VCRs
- Gold Bullion
- Stereo Equipment
- Hot Air Balloons
- Cruises
- Golf Clubs
- Dishwashers
- Motor Homes
- Ski Equipment
- Greenhouses
- Limited Partnerships
- All Terrain Vehicles
- Etc.

Just a reminder that the reasons for taking out one of our loans far outnumber the reasons not to.

Current Rates On New Auto Loans

48 Months - 9.5% A.P.R.
60 Months - 9.75% A.P.R.

BANK OF Eastern Oregon Member F.D.I.C.
Arlington • Heppner • Ione
"Your Independent Home Owned Bank"