

RSVP luncheon held April 21

Betty Tanner, a volunteer who kept the Morrow County Neighborhood Center going for many months, was recipient of the miniature observatory building at the RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) luncheon on April 21. In charge of the Spring luncheon at the new site of the Center were June Wagner, director and Judie Moore, assistant from the Morrow and Umatilla County RSVP office in Pendleton.

New tables were decorated with special placemats, tiny outhouses and tulips, with the five buildings—barn, church and houses made by the inmates of Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution in Pendleton for the RSVP program, including stories about out houses in days gone by, and trying to identify pictures of the volunteers in younger days.

Attending the salad luncheon were volunteers at the Center, Senior Meal Site, Museum Library, and

by Father Tony Bullman

One of the things that impress me about the New Testament Christian Church is that they were convinced about the experience of the risen Christ. And it was this deep assurance which gave them spiritual vitality, and a clear sense of direction. They knew where they were going. If you like the assurance of a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ, pray this prayer quietly on your own. Don't be in a hurry, take time and be still in God's presence before you pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I have sinned and gone my own way. I need your forgiveness. Thank you for your love, especially in dying on the cross to take away my sin. I am willing for You to lead and direct my life, and now I come to you Lord Jesus. I ask you to be my Saviour and friend and Lord forever. Amen.

Have you prayed that and really meant it—or perhaps a similar prayer some time ago? If so, you must take Christ at His word, and believe that he has now entered your life in the person of His Spirit. Feelings at this stage are unimportant. Some people experience a tremendous quality of peace, others have no feelings whatsoever. It makes no difference. It is His promise that is all important. He never breaks His word, I promise you.

May the Lord Jesus Bless You.

4-H's to tour OMSI

Morrow County 4-H has a very ambitious weekend planned for May 14 and 15 for any 4-H member who would like to participate. Cost for the trip will be approximately $25.

The weekend will begin very early Saturday morning. Saturday will include touring OMSI, Forest Center, Portland Zoo and State 4-H Center for dinner and accommodations.

Sunday events will include a nature hike at the 4-H Center and a possible tour of the State Capitol before returning home.

4-H'ers interested in this weekend should call the Extension Office at 676-9642 to reserve a place on the bus. Deadline for registration is April 29. Call now to guarantee a seat.

PUBLIC NOTICE

FAIR HOUSING RESOLUTION LET IT BE KNOWN TO ALL PERSONS OF THE City of Heppner that discrimination in the sale, rental, leasing, financing of housing or land to be used for construction of housing, or in the provision of brokerage services because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin is prohibited by Title VIII of the 1968 Civil Rights Act (Federal Fair Housing Law). It is the policy of the City of Heppner to implement programs to ensure equal opportunity in housing for all persons regardless of race, color, religion, sex or national origin. Therefore, the City does hereby pass the following resolution.

BE IT RESOLVED that within available resources the City will assist all persons who feel they have been discriminated against because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin to seek equity under federal and state laws by filing a complaint with the Oregon Civil Rights Commission or the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Seattle Regional Office Compliance Division.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the City shall publicize this resolution and through this publicity shall cause owners of real estate, developers and builders to become aware of their respective responsibilities and rights under the Federal Fair Housing Law and any applicable state or local laws or ordinances.

SAID PROGRAM will at a minimum include, but not be limited to: (1) the printing and publicizing of this policy and other applicable fair housing information through local media and community contracts; (2) distribution of posters, flyers and any other means which will bring to the attention of those affected, the knowledge of their respective responsibilities and rights concerning equal opportunity in housing.

This resolution shall take effect April 18, 1988.
