Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

Elections are just around the corner. Are you a registered voter? Do you go to the polls or are you guilty of letting someone else make the decisions which effect your lives? Here's a little game to raise your political consciousness which comes from Ron Pedersen, Family Community Leadership Volunteer, Bend.

1. Score 10 points if you voted in the last election.

2. Name a State Legislator or Senator representing you in your State legislature. 10 points.

3. Name your two Senators in the United States Congress. 20 points.

4. Name your Representative in the U.S. Congress. 20 points.

5. Score 10 points if you have been active on a local issue in the last year.

6. List three State or Federal Legislative issues of prime concern to the citizens of your area. 30 points.

7. Score 10 points if you have written any letters supporting or speaking against legislation in the last six months.

If you scored 80-100 points, you're pretty good. 60-80 points, you're doing O.K., but keep informed. Less than 60 points, it's time for some research and involvement. The Family Community Leadership program is the answer. 676-9642 will provide you with more information.

An out-of-town visitor said, "Heppner just glows because of its friendliness and trust among people." Let's keep that glow by supporting our county, schools and medical facilities. Go to the polls May 17.
