

Weddings

Andre — Rauch

Katherine Ann Andre and Christian Rauch were united in marriage April 23, in Ridgefield, Wa.

Katherine is the daughter of James and Barbara Andre of Ridgefield. She graduated from Ridgefield High School, attended Clark Community College and Washington State University.

Christian is the son of Irvin and Mildred Rauch of Lexington. He graduated from Heppner High School and attended Eastern Oregon College and University of Oregon.

Officiating at the ceremony was Father Gene Leonard and Pastor Rick Evenson.

Jim Ackley provided the musical selections for the wedding.

The maid of honor was sister of the bride, Kris Andre of Ridgefield. Bridesmaids were Geri Grieb, Lexington and Sherric Fall, of Vancouver, Wa.

Best man was Ken Grieb, Boardman, and groomsmen were David Andre, brother of the bride of Shasta, Calif., and Stan Rauch, the groom's brother from Hermiston.

Flower girl was Allison Kelly, niece of the bride. Ring bearer was nephew of the groom, Josh Hill.

A reception was held at St. Mary's Church in Ridgefield, Wa. Cutting the cake for the couple was Tana Hill Karen Kelly served coffee and Lisa Maxwell and Lori Patterson served punch. The guest book was attended by Kara Crisifulli.

After a Caribbean cruise and a visit to Disney World, the couple is at home in Lexington.

A reception was held at Hope Lutheran Church May 14.

In the Service

Airman John M. Kenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kenny of Heppner, has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

During the six weeks of training the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the community college of the Air Force.

He is a 1987 graduate of Heppner High School.

Big River Band Festival is June 19

The 8th Big River Band Festival will kick off on Sunday, June 19, with an 8 a.m. 10,000 meter run. The run will wind through the streets of Arlington. An arts and crafts fair will open a 10 a.m. and food concessions will be available all day. Band music, featuring diverse groups from around the area and the state, will begin playing in the Gazebo in Earl Snell Memorial Park in the morning. The highlight of the day will be the appearance of Doc Severinsen performing with former Arlington schoolmate, Dennis Clark, and his band.

The town of Arlington is conveniently located on I-84 between The Dalles and Hermiston. The festivities will take place in the Earl Snell Memorial Park on the waterfront and is free of charge. Swimming, relaxing in the park, and picnicking or enjoying the food booths are added features for festival goers.

The Big River Band Festival had its beginnings with Arlington's Centennial celebration. The community was in favor of continuing an annual event with a musical theme and proceeded to construct a beautiful gazebo in the park in which the bands perform. Other activities and attractions have been children's games, morning coffee hour in the park, an evening street dance, and lots of visiting with friends.

Marigolds in the bath tub at the park. They will be planted this week. A trip is planned to the Peterson Rock Gardens in Bend on June 14. We will leave at 6:30 a.m. and return that evening, everyone is to take a sack lunch. Lois Allyn gave an interesting talk on horse radish and its uses. Everyone was given samples to take home. Dorothy Burcham won the door prize.

Lexington Garden Bugs met for meeting

The Lexington Garden Bugs met for their regular meeting at the home of Margie Ball. Those present were Eula Bloodworth, Dorothy Burcham, Lois Allyn, Kathy Tellechea and the hostess.

A report was given on the progress of refinishing the picnic tables. Mel Allyn is doing the job. They look real nice and will be ready for use soon.

The club decided to plant

Mahoney graduates Magna Cum Laud

Trisha Mahoney, the twenty-one year old daughter of Bob and Sherree Mahoney and granddaughter of Hazel Mahoney, Heppner, graduated Magna Cum Laud (3.75-4.0 G.P.A.) in Radiologic Technology from Boise State University Sunday, May 15. For her degree, Trisha rotated through five major hospitals in Boise for the 1200 hours of practical experience she needed to graduate. Trisha will take her national boards in July and hopes to be admitted into an ultra sound school in the fall. Trisha graduated from Heppner High School in 1985.

Ritualistic contest held in Heppner

The Heppner Elks, Number 358, will be hosting the District Ritualistic Contest in Heppner this Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21.

Ten teams consisting of Hood River, The Dalles, Condon, Hermiston, Pendleton, Milton-Freewater, LaGrande, Enterprise, Baker and Heppner will compete. Around 100 people will be in Heppner for this event, which is alternately held around the district.

There will be live music on Friday and Saturday nights, and the general menu will be served.

Co-pastors installed at United Church of Christ

On Pentecost Sunday, May 22, Revs. Caroline and David Zaworski will be officially installed as the co-pastors of the Lone United Church of Christ. In this service of celebration the pastors and congregation covenant together in their mutual ministry. This is also a special time as we recognize the Zaworskis' 5th anniversary of ordination, which will be held in June.

The service will be held at 4:30 p.m. with a potluck dinner following. Child care will be provided so we encourage families to attend.

Members of the community and members of other local churches are particularly invited to join us. Please let us know if you will be coming by calling 422-7530.
