Awards given at North Morrow Christian School

Students from North Morrow Christian School receive awards at banquet May 31.

By Mindy Nix

An awards banquet was held for the North Morrow Christian School Tuesday, May 31 in the Boardman Grange Hall.

Many songs were sung and verses read by the students, grades K-6. Tod and Pam Files presented various awards to the students. The Good Workers Awards went to Stacy Olsen, Jack MacArthur, Brandon Kanyid and Derek MacArthur. The Finisher of the Race awards went to Bruce Whitman, Desarae Strom, Julie Daniels, Nicholas Daniels, Bret Files, Ann-Marie Files, Jacob Strom, Sherri Garetto and Victor Lawson. The Academic Improvement Award was presented to Jacob Strom. There was a tie for the Academic Excellence Award with both Nicholas Daniels and Ann-Marie Files ending the year with a 97% average. The Christian Character Award was presented to Bruce Whitman.

Some "not-so-serious" awards presented were the Proficiency

Awards, presented to Julie Daniels, Ann-Marie Files, Sherri Garetto and Desarae Strom. The girls had to clean the bathroom at the Grange Hall after school. They were each awarded a "bathroom cleaning utensil."

Nicholas Daniels received a wallet for raising the most money from their walk-a-thon. Nicholas raised $65.

At the end of the banquet, the students presented Tom and Pam Files with a paper banner to say "Good-bye until next year".

Heppner High School-Duane Ball, Kathleen Brazell, Mark Fishburn, Jennifer Lundin, Shannon McLaughlin, Dawn Palmer and Jerita Jo Osmin. Lone High School recipients are-Karla Davison, Gary Rea and Ken Snider. Riverside High School graduates are-Danita Creamer, Laura Erickson, Carmela Garcia, Jesus Garcia, Colleen Hensley, Steven Hulen, Lisa Journey, Jeff Marchek, Lisa Mark, Jason Michael and Robert Rea.

These grants are awarded from a fund provided by the last will and testament of Mr. Troedson, a prominent wheat rancher of the lone area.

These students will be eligible to apply for renewal of their grants in the following years of their college or training programs provided that they maintain good academic standing during their first year of post high school study.

The selection committee consists of Morrow County School District Superintendent, the Pastor of Valby Lutheran Church and the Morrow County Judge as specified in Mr. Troedson's will.

Award of the Troedson grants was announced at the recipients' respective school graduation ceremonies.

Tae Kwon Do Demonstration at RHS

By Mindy Nix

The Northwest Tae Kwon Do Association of Kennewick visited Riverside High School on Wednesday, June 1. The Tae Kwon Do class did a demonstration of their Martial Art, by putting on skits where Tae Kwon Do was involved and breaking boards with their heads, fists and feet.

A demonstration of Kata also was performed. Kata is a traditional form of Tae Kwon Do learned to reinforce the basics and improve techniques and moves.

The Northwest Tae Kwon Do Associations head instructor is Rocky Gonzales. Greg Fuentes is the instructor of the group that performed at Riverside. Mr. Fuentes' assistant is Rudolfo Meneosa.

Locals who performed in the demonstration were Dan Peck, Shauna Bates, Steve Hulen, Clay Haynes and Tom Richardson.

The Northwest Tae Kwon Do Association has received many awards and trophies for their excellence throughout the year.

In the Service

Air Force Staff Sgt. Thomas C. Abercrombie, son of Lenard D. Abercrombie of Irrigon, and Evelyn Hamlin of Gary, Minn., has been named noncommissioned officer of the month.

Abercrombie is an aircraft environmental systems technician with the 366th Aircraft Generation Squadron at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho.

The selection was based on the individual's exemplary duty performance, job knowledge, leadership qualities, significant self-improvement and other accomplishments.

He is a 1980 graduate of Riverside High School, Boardman.

Glenn to attend honors program

Harold T. Glenn is one of 30 high school students selected to attend the Summer Honors Program at Western Oregon State College to be held July 16-15. Recommended by an instructor from his school, the student will explore "The Nature of Controversy". Members of Western's faculty will conduct the interdisciplinary study.

Glenn, the son of Ed and Frances Glenn of Boardman will be a senior at Riverside High School in Boardman.

teacher. "I didn't even start college until I was forty-two," she said. "I received my bachelor of science degree in three years from Southern Eastern Oklahoma State University."

She received her Masters Degree from South Eastern Oklahoma, also. She raised part of the money for her tuition by hoeing cotton for twenty-five cents an hour.

She also attended Eastern Oregon State College and Portland State College.

Geneva, who has never been bored in her life, plans to start singing in the choir of the Assembly of God Church in Hermiston where she attends.

She was the only girl in a family of seven brothers, and the baby to boot. "My dad spoiled me a little bit," she chuckled.

"I now just want to take time to smell the flowers along the way," she said.
