Reynolds retiring after 21 years

Rollin Reynolds of the Area Agency on Aging is retiring after 21 years of service. He has been responsible for seeing that over 44 services are provided to Seniors and Handicapped Persons in Gilliam, Grant, Morrow, Umatilla and Wheeler Counties.

Under Rollin's direction the agency desires "to expend every effort to make available to all Senior Citizens and Handicapped persons support services which will maintain human dignity and encourage the maximum level of independence in the least restrictive setting."

Rollin will be honored by ECOAC, AAA members and friends at a retirement dinner on June 17, at the Elks Lodge in Pendleton.

Log cabin quilt workshop scheduled

The special workshop on making "log cabin" quilts is scheduled for Saturday, June 11, 8:30 a.m., at the Heppner Fairgrounds. The instructor will be Norma Barber, of Ukiah.

Those interested may still register to attend by calling 676-9642. Pre-registration is needed as participants must be mailed a list of supplies and equipment needed to complete a quilt.

For those who do not complete their quilt on Saturday, Mrs. Barber has agreed to continue the instruction on Sunday morning.

New officers to be installed

At a recent meeting of Ruth Locust Chapter No. 32, Order of Eastern Star, new officers for the coming year were elected. Chosen for Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron were Katherine Lindstrom and Lewis Halvorsen; Associate Matron, Louise Wood, and Associate Patron John Wood. Serving again as secretary will be Carmelita (Dot) Halvorsen and treasurer will be Roy W. Lindstrom. Elected Conductress was Patricia Hyatt and Associate Conductress Lota Tibbles. These elected officers and other appointed officers will be installed at a public installation ceremony on June 17 at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Installing officers will include Virginia Wilkinson, Past Grand Matron, installing grand matron and Hilmer Horn, Pilot Rock, Past Grand Patron, installing grand patron. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Summer Sunday school at Methodist Church

Registration open for Ione tennis match

Registration forms are now being taken for the Ione Fourth of July Tennis tournament. There will be three divisions: mens singles; womens singles; and doubles.

The deadline for registration is June 24. Call Clint Krebs, 422-7548 or Linda Tullis, 422-7248 to register.

You don't have to be a pro to play. It is open for everyone. Come and have fun.

Ione UCC Bible School is June 13-17

Ione United Church of Christ will be holding its annual Vacation Church School during the week of June 13-17. Classes will be offered daily from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for children and youth from 2 years to junior high age. The theme for the week will be "Jesus Christ: Giver of Peace". The weeks activities will include crafts, stories, snacks, songs, and games.

A daily offering will be taken for Heifer Project International, an organization which provides animals for needy families in third-world countries in an attempt to provide some measure of self-sufficiency, in addition to nutrition. This year, the children will be working to purchase a goat.

Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, June 13. The church is requesting a $1 donation to defray the costs of supplies.

The children will be concluding the week with a program for family and friends at 11 a.m. on Friday, June 17. All are welcome to attend.
