Chamber Chatter

You'll soon be seeing three new planters in town. Many thanks to Kinzua Corporation for donating the materials; to Bill Sowell for taking the time to build them; to Forrie Burkenbine for chairing the project; and to Fred Lundin for transporting supplies. Coast-to-Coast, Heppner T. V., and Dr. Robert Rolen have filed for adoption.

Music in the Park was great Sunday evening; a super way to forget about the heat. Marcia Sweek is planning additional cultural events for our community. Don't wish summer away, the days are already getting shorter. Pack a picnic and head for Willow Creek Lake or Cutsforth Park. Make some memories.

"Trail Days and Country Ways", the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo theme, opens the doors for creativity. Start preparing now to enter fair exhibits and participate in the parade. Dates are August 17-21. It's a community effort.

Next week Chamber will have its regular business meeting. The luncheon bar has been delicious, offering a variety of salads, fruit, and cold cuts. Come see for yourself.
