--Women's volleyball ages 19 & up will be on Monday nights at the Ione High School Gym. Bring clean gym shoes for indoor use. If you are 18 years old but graduated then you are also eligible to play. Play time will be from 7-8:30 p.m.

--The Morrow County Historical Society held its potluck meeting at the Lexington Grange on Sunday. It was the first meeting I attended and I'm regretting not having joined years ago. I enjoyed the wonderful dinner and visiting with members. With a turn-out of almost 70 people, the afternoon activities included an informative talk by George Bennett on 100 years of railroading and communications, and a demonstration on a telegraph.

The Stoke's Landing Kitchen band entertained the group and everyone joined in the singing.

The meeting included discussions on Century farms, community projects, the Oregon Trail and last year's activities.

I go to quite a few meetings but this is the first one I've attended that had excellent food, information, entertainment and fun people. These people know the formula for great meetings. For information on joining the Historical Society call Delpha Jones, 989-8189, or Ruth McCabe, 422-7194. Dues are $5. Morrow County can be proud of this group.

--Remember the Avon Open House at the Willows Grange on Oct. 24. Call Sheila at 422-7402 for details.

--T.O.P.S. meetings are Monday nights at 7 p.m. at the Ione Grade School office. Meetings are for ladies high school and up. Stay for volleyball after the meeting if you choose.

--A dinner hosted by Helen Crawford and her grandson Michael Klinger was held Saturday evening September 24 at her farm home in the Ella district in honor of Ruby Roberts on her 90th birthday. On the same evening John Bristow and Linda hosted a party at their home for Lucile Rietmann on her 80th birthday. Family came from Heppner, Portland, Walla Walla, Tri-Cities, Tillamook, Wilsonville and Prairie City.

following were projects that 4-H members were involved in last year: horse, foods, woodworking, marketing, livestock, clothing, small animals, toll painting and forestry. There are many possibilities for 4-H. If you have a creative idea for a club, please call Bill Broderick at the Extension office 676-9642. It's always exciting to get new 4-H clubs started.

Wedding

Bailey — Koue

Monique Janelle Koue of Milton-Freewater and Jeffery Olin Bailey of Heppner were married July 30 at a cabin on Government Mountain above Milton-Freewater.

The Rev. Dave Jones Sr. officiated at the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Carol and John Hall of Portland and Louis and Sybil Koue of Terrebonne. She has attended Terrebonne and Redmond schools and is employed with U.S. National Bank in Milton-Freewater.

The bridegroom is the son of Janell and Dwight Bailey of Heppner. He attended Heppner High School and Walla Walla Community College and is a self-employed rancher.

The bride, who was attended by Candie Reeves of San Francisco, Calif., wore a custom-designed, street-length leather dress in white and gray. She carried a silk bouquet of wild flowers and wore the 114-year old wedding band of the bridegroom's great-great-grandmother given to her by the family of the bridegroom.

Best man was Dave Jones, Jr., of Walla Walla. After the outdoor wedding a reception was held at Umapine Community Hall.

The couple took a wedding trip to Idaho and Nevada and will make their home in Walla Walla.

Missionary to speak at Christian Life Center

Rev. Doug Thomas, Assemblies of God missionary to Mexico, will be speaking at Christian Life Center on Sunday, October 9 at 10:30 a.m.

During their first 4-year term of missionary service, Mr. Thomas, along with his wife Karen, and their two sons, Aaron and Ryan, have been involved in city wide evangelism in Mexico City. "Mexico City is now the largest city in the world, with more than 20 million people and growing at the rate of 80,000 people per month," says Mr.

Thomas. "There are probably less than 5,000 people in all of our Assemblies of God churches in the entire city. The challenge of reaching Mexico City with the message of Christ is staggering."

Prior to missionary appointment, the Thomas's pastored churches in Madras, Scio and Heppner.

At this service, the Thomas's will share their concern for the Mexican people and special music will be featured. The public is invited.
