United Way gives to Foster Bear program

United Way of Morrow County purchased five little brown bears with red and blue T-shirts for the Morrow County Children's Services Foster Bear Care Program.

Presenting the bears to Sue Warren (R) is Cathi Bauska, United Way board member and Thomas and Amy Bauska, Morrow County Disaster Relief funds were used for the purchase.

The Foster Bear Care idea is modeled after Portland's "Officer Bear" and modified to fit the needs of the foster child. It is a two-fold concept which provides an emotional bridging for the new foster child and educates the public through multiple media forms about the need for foster homes and the purpose of CSD in a positive light.

Watch for the "Fairy Godmothers."

'72 Court entertains '89 Court in Hermiston

The Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court of 1972 entertained the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court of 1989 at a luncheon held at the Munkers home in Hermiston on Saturday, October 15. Hostesses were Queen Susie French Ward, Princess Anne Hoskins Munkers, Princess Patty Luciani Matheny and Princes Kerry Coppock Pettyjohn. The other 1972 princess, Debbie McCoy Burns was unable to attend due to illness.

Court Director Mickie Hoskins Madison and Court Chaperone Marlene Currin accompanied Queen

Nancy and her mother Janell Princes Jodee and mother Julie, Princess Amy and mother Janet and Princess Shawna and mother Kathy on a shopping trip to begin the process of outfitting the Court.

After shopping, everyone enjoyed a beautiful luncheon of ham, turkey, roast beef, salads, homemade rolls and chocolate cheesecake all set in a western theme.

The '89 court was presented with corsages made of golden daisy mums and wheat. They enjoyed looking through the scrapbook belonging to Princess Patty. Much fun was had by all.

Kirby retires from 1st Interstate

Vern Kirby, manager of the Fossil and Condon branches of First Interstate Bank of Oregon, will retire October 31 after more than 37 years of service.

Kirby began his banking career in 1951 at the Hood River branch. He moved to the Fossil branch in 1956 and was named manager in 1969. For the last five years, he has also served as manager of First Interstate's Condon branch.

Kirby has been involved with the Fossil Community Club since 1956 and has served as treasurer of the club for the past several years. He is currently president of Fossil Community T.V., Inc., the community-owned cable television company. He also serves on the Fossil School Board Budget Committee and the Fossil Parks Commission. He and his wife have six grown children.

An Open House will be held in honor of Kirby on Monday, October 31, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Fossil branch, 103 S. Main.

The Fossil, Condon and Heppner branches will now be operated as a unit, with Harley Sager as manager of Heppner branch, Marilyn Garcia as manager of Fossil branch and Chuck Taylor as manager of Condon branch.

ORBA endorses local candidates

The Oregon Restaurant and Beverage Association (ORBA), a trade association representing 900 restaurants, lounges, taverns and resorts statewide, has endorsed these local candidates for their races to the Oregon Legislature.

Debbie Wall, Executive Director for ORBA, announced that the endorsement was made at ORBA's recent Annual Convention held in Newport.

In explaining ORBA's endorsement, Wall stated, "after considerable review by our Legislative Committee, we felt these candidates would prove to be hard workers for our industry; serving as watchdogs in the legislature to insure that additional burdens are not placed on the industries that create jobs and make the free enterprise system work in Oregon."

For the Senate, District 29, Mike Thorne D-Pendleton.

For the House of Representatives, District 57, Chuck Norris R-Hermiston; District 58, Ray Baum R-LaGrande and District 59, Ray French R-Heppner.
