Unique gift ideas

The Morrow County Museum is offering for sale high quality works by local artists. Currently available is a selection of hand-painted china by Shirely McNary including a 3-piece tea set and a lavender pansy pitcher and bowl, among other things.

Beginning November 26, the featured artist will be Rene Devin who will be offering a limited number of hand-carved and hand painted wooden Christmas ornaments exclusively through the Museum 'Market Place'. Examples of three of Rene's many designs are on display at the museum now.

The museum is open 1-5 p.m. daily except Thursday and Friday.

Temple veterinary clinic moves to Lexington

Mrs. Dick (Karen) Temple and daughters Krystal, 7 months, and Laurel 11 years, are shown in the new office for Dr. Temple's veterinary quarters in Lexington. Dr. Temple was called out at the time of this picture.

Dick Temple and his family have been in the Heppner area two years this July, as a veterinarian for small and large animals.

The family just recently moved from where they were located on Hinton Creek to Lexington where they purchased the Dick Hoffman house.

They have moved a double-wide trailer in to serve as the office and clinic for Dr. Temple's business. There are corrals already on the place that will work in well for them.

The Temples have four children, Rusty, 20, lives and works in South Dakota; Brent, 18, is a senior at Heppner High School; Laurel, 11; and Krystal, 7 months.

The phone number at the new clinic is 989-8181.
