By Jill Conklin
The Heppner Fillies continued their cruise through the Columbia Basin Conference with a win over the Pilot Rock Rockets 64-31, Jan. 27.

Tami Lindsay and Jennifer Currin led the Fillies to a 12-8 first period lead that the Rockets could never overcome. Currin and Lindsay each had four points in the quarter.

Although hindered by a number of fouls in the second period, the Fillies came through intact. Heppner sent the visiting Rockets to the foul line nine times in the period but they never could capitalize, missing the front end of the one-and-one five times.

The Fillies came out strong after the half scoring 22 points in the third period. Sandi Turner led the charge with seven points. The Rockets were held to just 12 points and found themselves trailing 47-25 with only eight minutes left.

The final quarter saw Heppner continuing to dominate the Rockets. Pilot Rock managed to score on two field goals and two free-throws. Nikki Brisbois scored five points in the period to help extend the Fillie lead to 33 points at the end of the game 64-31.

Lindsay led the Fillies with 14 points and 14 rebounds. Currin scored 13 points and Turner aided the cause with 11 points and seven steals. Rebecca Hatley led the Rockets with 13 points.
