The Adventures of Grazelda & Clem...

(After Hours)
6:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.

Grazelda Coed: "Oh, Thank you Clem for these two lovely candy bars you got me for my birthday. I'm sure glad Miller's Mini Mart & Chevron was open this early. What are you gonna fix me for my birthday dinner?"

Clem Gashed: "Oh, Gee Grazelda, I'm gonna fix you this delicious microwave sandwich I picked up at the mini-mart. Aren't I a prince of a guy?"

Grazelda Hissed: "You're just too good to me Clem!"

Devin takes high point honors

By Scott Johnston

A large and loud Heppner crowd saw the Mustangs lose their third straight Friday night game January 27. This time the Mustangs fell victim to the Pilot Rock Rockets in overtime, 63-57.

The Mustangs found themselves down by three at the end of the first quarter but exploded in the second period scoring 22 points, 15 of them from Dick Devin. Heppner outscored Pilot Rock by 10 in the second quarter and led by seven at half.

After halftime the Rockets started to fight back and outscored the Mustangs 12-9. Tim Hays scored five of Heppner's nine points to keep the Mustangs ahead, but only by four, going into the fourth period.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The City of Boardman Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, February 15, 1989 at 7:30 p.m. in the council chambers at Town Square to consider a home occupation permit for "Natural Healing". The location is 132 N.E. 3rd Street (Lot 21 in block 2 Hansen's First Addition). Signed Terry Tallman Chairman of City of Boardman Planning Commission Published: February 1, 1989

The Rockets made up for those four points in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime as the Mustangs missed five free throws of which four were on the front end of a one and one. The Mustangs only shot 46% from the free throw line all night.

Both Heppner and Pilot Rock managed only one field goal in overtime but the Rockets were red hot from the free throw line connecting on all six.

The loss dropped the Mustangs out of the first place tie they shared with Pilot Rock.

The Mustangs were led in scoring by Dick Devin with 17, followed by Bryan Padberg and Russell Britt each with 15 apiece. Devin also grabbed 15 rebounds with Hays getting eight for Heppner.

The Cardinals pulled out a surprising victory Friday, January 27, against the Helix Grizzlies, 44-41.

The Cardinals started off slow being outscored 11-7 in the first quarter, but gained momentum as the game progressed.

Jo Cupps, who led the Ione scoring with 12 points, took three early fouls in the first quarter "rode the pine" most of the first half. Upon re-entering the game in the second half she picked up her 12 points, 10 rebounds, two blocked shots and no other fouls.

Although in the previous game against Helix, Ione lost by 25 plus points, Ione remained optimistic throughout the game.

Linda Morter had two 3-point shots that were key to the game. Amy Wagenblast had a great defensive game pulling down nine rebounds and having a blocked shot.

Mary Cupps also shined defensively with 12 rebounds and seven points including a fourth quarter 3-point shot.

Ione was outscored three of the four quarters. "A strong third quarter attack was a key to the game," said many of Ione's players. It came down to the last minute to decide the fate of the game, but Jo Cupps finished the game after the final buzzer with two free throws. The final score was 44-41.
