

BESSIE WETZELL
U OF ORE
NEWSPAPER LIB
EUGENE OR 97403

The Heppner

Morrow County's Home-Owned Newspaper

G-T azette imes

VOL 107 NO. 6

Wednesday, February 8, 1989

Heppner 25¢

8 Pages

Ice fishing popular at Dam

These two men were taking advantage of a nice day Tuesday at the dam to get in some ice fishing. The temperature got down to a -15 degrees last Friday and has continued cold. The forecast is for more cold throughout the week.

Deena's Hair Care holds open house

Deena's Hair Care is having their open house Wednesday. Deena Reid is opening a beauty shop in her home at 291 W. Baltimore in Heppner. Deena, standing, is the construction engineer of her new business which she fashioned from an unused bedroom. New cabinets were made and installed, by Deena, with her husband assisting in the plumbing. She will be open for business Thursday, she says.

Kids carnival rides are new item for St. Pat's week-end

There will be a St. Patrick's Committee meeting, Monday, February 13 at 7 p.m. at the Extension Conference room. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting to help with plans for the celebration. Come and volunteer to help on a committee, you may find you enjoy it.

New this year is a karate demonstration to be held at the grade school. Also new for kids 12 and under will be carnival fun rides.

Carnival held

For families with cabin fever, this Saturday, February 11, is a chance to get out of the house and attend the Heppner Elementary School Carnival sponsored by the Parents Club. The fun starts at 6:30 and lasts until 8:30 p.m. at the county fairgrounds. There will be activities for preschool age and up, such as Bingo, pop toss, cake walk, face painting, concessions, and more. Tickets are on sale at the door.

The annual carnival is the Parents Club main fundraiser. Some of the past purchases with the proceeds of the carnival have been computer equipment, VCR's and sports equipment.

If you have not yet signed up to help and would like to offer your services, please call Joyce Hughes, 989-8412 or leave a message at the school.

Public forum held

A "Public Information Forum" has been scheduled for Thursday evening, February 16 from 7 - 9 p.m. at the Heppner Junior High School Gymnasium. This forum will provide an opportunity for the public to hear presentations by both the Morrow County School Board and the Morrow County Teacher's Association regarding contract negotiations between these two bodies.

Mr. Ron Daniels, president of Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, will serve as moderator for this event.

Jones retires after nine years with planning commission

Photo by Gail Pageau

Cecil Jones, a member of the Morrow County Planning Commission, is retiring after nine years. Irvin Rauch presented him with a plaque for the years he served. Attending the presentation was Louis Carlson, Irvin Rauch, Dean Seeger and Jerry Peck.

Rauch jokingly noted that taking into consideration the usual three-hour meetings and one hour of travel to the meetings, after nine years of service, Cecil has put in about 43 days of meetings or two plowing seasons.

Peck stated that Jones holds the record for the longest consecutive record on the Planning Commission.

Cecil was invited to attend the meetings any time and told that he could probably say anything he wanted to, now.

Junior bowler hits 210

Travis Pettyjohn

Travis Pettyjohn, nine-year old son of Larry and Kerry Pettyjohn, Heppner, and a fourth-grader at Heppner Elementary School, had a 210 game at Heppner Bowl. Travis bowls in the junior league and had this most exceptional game on January 26. Only two other youngsters have had 200 games and one was a 16-year old student, according to Terry Smith from Heppner Bowl.

MCGG holds annual appreciation breakfast

See the Little People at the MCGG Customer Appreciation Day, Feb. 11.

Story Hour

Storytime at Heppner's Public Library this Thursday at 10:30 a.m. is about "Hearts". Storyteller is Teresa Flaiz and all children are welcome.

The Morrow County Grain Growers will be holding their annual customer appreciation day this Saturday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon at the head office in Lexington.

The day starts off with a free pancake breakfast, followed by many displays from factory representatives and special events by the Oregon Cattlewomen, and the FFA.

You can also enter to win door prizes which include: rollaway tool chest, Century 15/200 amp charger, laundry soap, drill insulated boots and coveralls, clothing, toy riding tractor, and other toys.

Ben Franklin undergoes remodeling project

Terrie Cutsforth, left, manager of Ben Franklin in Heppner, and Vicki Greif, right, are doing the best they can to assist customers around the remodeling that is being done. A new front was added along with the interior work of removing walls, painting, adding new carpet and re-doing the employees lounge. Stop by and see what is new at Ben Franklin.

Weather Report

by City of Heppner

Jan. 31-Feb. 6

	High	Low	Prec	Snow
Tues.	35	25	.15	2 1/2"
Weds.	28	-5	.11	4"
Thurs.	5	-5	.06	4"
Fri.	2	-15	.03	3"
Sat.	10	-9	.0	3"
Sun.	19	-2	.0	3"
Mon.	25	1	.0	3"

Market Report

Compliments of the Morrow County Grain Growers

Tuesday, Feb. 7

	Soft White	Barley
Feb.	$5.03
March	$5.03
April	$4.94/$4.87
July	$4.39/$4.37
Aug.	$4.35
Feb-Apr.	$108 T
PIK	99%
Hard Red Winter	$4.75

SINGLE PREMIUM ANNUITY

9%

BANK OF Eastern Oregon

FINANCIAL SERVICES
P.O. BOX 38
HEPPNER, OR 97836